

Notes on Gabra Stranger

Gabra: nomadic camel herding people – 30,000 in northern Kenya – 52,000 square miles (area size of Holland) one of the most barren tracts of desert in the world, less than eight inches of rainfall annually

see their response to a lone man, owning only his spear and clothing worn – poor and hungry