

ISEM 101 Sacred Journey - Reflective Write/Essay

Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn once wrote that “the line dividing good and evil cuts through the heart of every human being.” All the Light We Cannot See is filled with examples of human nature at its best and worst. Discuss the themes of good versus evil throughout the story. How do they drive each other? What do you think are the ultimate lessons that these characters and the resolution of their stories teach us?

Based upon your own life-experiences, reflect on the meaning of good and evil. What are their meanings, and provide an example on how have they influenced your life?
