

1. Who is the American Indian? How should we define them?
2. What is the best way to understand? How should we approach learning about the American Indian?
3. What does Tribal Sovereignty mean? How should we define it?
4. What has been the most devastating result of contact and interaction with Euro-American society for American Indians?
5. What are among the most important attributes of Indigenous knowledge and culture?
6. What is the greatest challenge faced by American Indians today?
7. What key take-away lessons from the American Indian are applicable to all of us, to humanity?