

Competency-Based Education and Other Instruction Techniques

Teaching Techniques for Addiction
Training Professionals

Steven E. Meier, Ph.D.

Listen to the audio lecture while viewing these slides

1

Course Overview

- Purpose of Instructor Development
- How Adults Learn
- Communication Skills
- Instructional Management
- Classifying Learning
- Lesson Planning and Instructional content
- Instructional Methods
- Monitoring Knowledge and Evaluation

2

Purpose of Instructor Development

- Introduce individuals to the core tenets of teaching so they can become effective and dynamic instructors
- Introduce new instructors to the concepts of how people learn
- Demonstrate some teaching strategies to ensure understanding and retention
- Ensure instruction is presented in a manner that is engaging for students

3

Why is This Course Important for You

- Provides an overview of some important concepts for all class instruction
- Gives you some new tools you may want to consider during your presentations
- Makes you aware of some new techniques
- May challenge and change the way you want to teach some concepts

4

How This Class Will Work

- Modular format to cover a particular concept
- Uses two different models of instruction
 - Media site
 - PowerPoint
- Will provide you demonstrations as applicable

5
