

Tavistock Bombing Anniversary (2005)|Don't take photos in train nor tube stations; London's equivalent of 9/11!

10.00 Visit|Bartlett Summer Show with Elizabeth Cooper; omiyage [Reggie Mace]

12.00 Visit|The Building Centre
 • the exhibits|Garden of Privatised Delights, 2021 British Pavilion exhibition for the Biennale in Venice, about privately owned public spaces
 • the gender-neutral loos in the basement
 • The Café for good food and acoustic treatment

14.00 View|The Architectural Association Projects Review 2022. You're welcome to attend the review that will be on Sat, 16 Jul, 11.00–19.00 if you can comply with their Covid-19 policy (cf. their web site banner).

OUR VISIT IS DEPENDENT ON COMPLIANCE WITH THE AA'S COVID-19 POLICY. AS OF THIS DATE, OUR VISIT TO THE AA IS CANCELLED.

16.00 Visit|The British Museum
 • You can't see it all in one day; hack the museum looking for daylighted spaces—the Grand Court with Foster's glass lid is obvious (and cool), but most of the upper floor galleries are also skylighted.

GETTING THERE

BARTLETT SCHOOL OF ARCHITECTURE SUMMER SHOW
 22 Gordon Street, London;
 <<https://www.ucl.ac.uk/bartlett/architecture/events/2022/jul/bartlett-summer-show-2022>>; £0; Sundays 2–16 Jul, 10.00–17.30

THE BUILDING CENTRE
 Store Street; London; WC1E 7BT;
 <<https://www.buildingcentre.co.uk/>>; £0

ARCHITECTURAL ASSOCIATION SCHOOL OF ARCHITECTURE
 36 Bedford Square; London; WC1B 3ES;
 <<https://www.aaschool.ac.uk/>>; £0

BRITISH MUSEUM
 Great Russell St; London; WC1B 3DG;
 <<https://www.britishmuseum.org/>>
 10.00–17.00 daily; 10.00–20.30 Fridays;
 £0; book advanced tickets, except special exhibits

