

THIS WEEK AT THE CENTER FOR ETHICS*

Friday, July 24, 2009

• Workshop WWC at FingerLakes

- Dr. Stoll traveled to Finger Lakes Community College, Canandaigua, New York, July 19 – 21, to present a workshop for Winning With Character. Coach Bobby Lankford of Winning with Character also traveled to New York for the workshop. FingerLakes is a community college of approximately 6,000 students. The workshop was attended by all head coaches and is the latest WWC member.

• Dr. Williams and Ethics Panel

- Dr. Jackie Williams, Ph.D., student #14 of Dr. Stoll and graduated in 2007, has been asked to service on the Ethics council of the National Athletic Trainers' Association. Dr. Williams's dissertation and continuing research has been focused on the ethics education of the teaching faculty in the training of student Athletic Trainers. Dr. Williams is at Slippery Rock State College.

• Dr. Stoll Cited in Editorial

- Dr. Stoll was cited in the Spokesman Review Editorial, <http://www.spokesman.com/stories/2009/jul/23/athletes-moral-decline-bad-for-everyone/> July 23, 2009.

• Culp Back from Tetons

- Clinton Culp, doctoral student in Center, recently returned safely from a climb of the Tetons with University of Idaho Director of Outdoor Programs, Mike Beiser. They began their climb by a two day stay with Yellowstone author Lorraine G. Bonney in Kelly, WY, to acclimate, before their ascent. Clinton collected valuable information for his Ph.D. projected study in climbing ethics and ethical usage of mountain resources in climbing. Clinton is recently retired from the US Marine Corps where he was the Officer in Charge of the Mountain Leaders School, Bridgeport, CA, with a tour in Afghanistan as advisor to the Afghan Commando Battalion in mountain warfare.

• Upcoming Events

- Ph.D. dissertation defense: August 17, 2009. Tentatively scheduled: Justin Barnes defense of his dissertation Moral Reasoning Intervention Program in College Core Discovery.
- Dr. Pete and Dr. Heather Van Mullem will be presenting on servant leadership at the NW District convention in Missoula, Montana, August 8.
- Dr. Stoll and Dr. Beller are to travel to Seattle for a meeting with the International Association of the Philosophy of Sport, August 25 to 27. Their paper on the teaching moral reasoning and moral development for athlete populations was accepted for presentation in April.