Friday, August 28, 2009

- Letter of Reference
  - Dr. Stoll wrote two letters of reference this past week, one for aM.S. in Leadership/Recreation student – Jennifer Williams, and one for a student from Dr. Stoll's Core Discovery class she taught in 2007 who applied for Medical School.
- Letter of Thank You
  - Dr. Stoll received a letter of thanks from T. Gilmour Reeve, the chair of Research Consortium of the American Alliance of Healthy, Physical Education, Recreation, and Dance for her work as a Program Review Chair. The acceptance rate for the Research consortium abstracts for the coming 2010 convention in Indianapolis, IN was 65%. "The reviews from you and your panel members were thoughtful and helped to ensure the overall quality of the papers presented at the Research Consortium Conference at the AAHPERD Convention."
- DATA Received
  - The Center has been receiving data from the clients of Winning With Character for analysis. Clients include the professional baseball team, the Atlanta Braves, as well as high schools and colleges. We serve WWC by analyzing moral reasoning levels of athletes or students involved in character education or sport education programs. This is the fifth year of working with the Atlanta Braves. One of the newest analyses is of the Georgia Military Academy prep school – the entire school population which is involved in character education.
- Master's Proposal
  - Mohdas Madzy Ahmad Basra successfully presented his proposal for a master's thesis on leadership and character of adult youth in Malaysia to his committee of Dr. Jennifer M. Beller, Washington State University, Dr. Mike Kinziger, retired from Recreation, and Dr. Stoll.
