

THIS WEEK AT THE CENTER FOR ETHICS*

Friday, December 18, 2009

Winter Graduation

- Justin Barnes, Ph.D., was hooded on Saturday by Dr. Stoll, at the 125th University of Idaho graduation. Dr. Barnes is Dr. Stoll's 19th graduated doctoral student.

Position

- Dr. Justin Barnes, who presently is an adjunct at Washington State University in the Sport Management program, received an offer for a full time position for the 2010 – 2011 year teaching in Sport Management. Dr. Barnes is the third doctoral student of Dr. Stoll who has been offered a position at WSU and did adjunct work there.

Assistant Chair Position

- Dr. Jackie Williams became an assistant chairperson for the Dept. of Exercise & Rehabilitative Sciences at Slippery Rock State University, Slippery Rock, PA. The position officially begins in January. Dr. Williams is Dr. Stoll's 14th finished doctoral student and graduated in 2007.

Interview for Israel News

- Dr. Stoll was interviewed by phone this week by Ze'ev Avrahami, of the Haaretz Newspaper, Israel. The 45 minute interview was directed toward the Tiger Woods affair.

Reference

- Dr. Stoll wrote a letter of reference for Dana Stombaugh for a position in Vicenza, Italy. Dr. Stoll did a telephone interview reference for Crystal Hasey seeking a position with Washington Corrections. Ms. Hasey did her master's thesis with Dr. Stoll. Mr. Stombaugh graduated in the recreation leadership master's program in 2009.

Strong Foundation

- Zoe Strong of the Strong Foundation is receiving credit from Seattle Pacific University for her work in helping the Center develop curriculum. Winning With Character holds the contract with Strong Foundation and then purchases Curriculum from the Center.

IRB Review.

- Dr. Stoll as a member of the IRB of the University of Idaho reviewed a paper for approval.

Up Coming Events

- Dr. Stoll has been invited by Phi Kappa Phi to attend the national convention in August of 2010, all expenses paid, to represent the University of Idaho Chapter as an outstanding chapter of merit. Dr. Stoll is president of Phi Kappa Phi, Chapter 79.
- Dr. Jennifer M. Beller – affiliate member of the Center and Associate Professor at Washington State University, has been asked to speak at the Fourth Annual Pacific Lutheran University Wang Center for Global Education 2010 International Symposium Understanding the World Through Sports and Recreation Thursday and Friday, March 4 and 5, 2010. Dr. Beller will be speaking on the intersection between performance enhancing drugs in sport and the use of performance enhancing measures by the boomer generation.
- This week at the Center will be on hiatus, December 18 – January 4, 2010.