

THIS WEEK AT THE CENTER FOR ETHICS*

Friday, November 13, 2009

Review

- Dr. Stoll finished her 10th review for Quest this week. Quest is a peer reviewed journal or those in the physical activity field in higher education, there's no single journal that covers more topics of common interest than Quest. Each issue examines not only critical issues facing physical educators, but also research developments in the sport sciences and other sub-disciplines of human movement.
- Dr. Stoll finished an IRB review for the University of Idaho Institution Review Board.

References Out

- Dr. Stoll wrote online letters of reference for students applying to graduate education programs, Joe Church, University of Washington..

Up Coming Events

- Thesis Defense for MohdAsmadzy Ahmad Basra, November 18, 11:30 a..m. Asmadzy's thesis title: "The effects of an outdoor adventure program on the self-esteem of Malaysian young adults enrolled in a 5-day outdoor adventure program".
- Dr. Stoll has been invited by Phi Kappa Phi to attend the national convention in August of 2010, all expenses paid, to represent the University of Idaho Chapter as an outstanding chapter of merit. Dr. Stoll is president of Phi Kappa Phi, Chapter 79.
- Dr. Jennifer M. Beller – affiliate member of the Center and Associate Professor at Washington State University, has been asked to speak at the Fourth Annual Pacific Lutheran University Wang Center for Global Education 2010 International Symposium Understanding the World Through Sports and Recreation Thursday and Friday, March 4 and 5, 2010. Dr. Beller will be speaking on the intersection between performance enhancing drugs in sport and the use of performance enhancing measures by the boomer generation.