

THIS WEEK AT THE CENTER FOR ETHICS*

Friday, October 30, 2009

Presentation Accepted

- Jackie Williams, Ph.D. has a proposal "Developing Moral Reasoning Skills in AT students: A Web-based Approach" accepted for the NATA annual meeting & clinical symposium in Philadelphia June 22-25, 2010. Jackie received her Ph.D. in 2007, and Dr. Stoll's 14th finished doctoral student.

Blog Out

- The Center had another Blog posting this week, "The Old Dude, Prejudice I" written by Dr. Andy Rudd. Dr. Rudd is with Florida State University in their Sport Management Program, and is Dr. Stoll's 4th doctoral student, finishing in 1995. .

References Out

- Dr. Stoll wrote letters of reference for students applying to graduate education programs, graduate business programs, physical therapy school, and an internship with the United States Olympic Committee for Noel Landkammer, Joe Church, and Kati Colvin.

Up Coming Events

- Thesis Defense for MohdAsmadzy Ahmad Basra, November 18, 2p.m. Asmadzy's thesis title: The effects of an outdoor adventure program on the self-esteem of Malaysian young adults enrolled in a 5-day outdoor adventure program".

AAHPERD Research Consortium Awards Committee

- Dr. Stoll is a member of the Research Consortium Awards Committee which is in process of selecting Award winners for the 2010 Indianapolis Convention. The mission of RC is to advance and disseminate research in physical activity and health and is the coordinating organization within AAHPERD in support of research across the disciplines and the professions. Dr. Stoll represents the discipline of philosophy and socio-cultural research.

IRB Review

- Dr. Stoll reviewed an IRB proposal for the University of Idaho Review Board.

Invitation

- Dr. Stoll has been invited by Phi Kappa Phi to attend the national convention in August of 2010, all expenses paid, to represent the University of Idaho Chapter as an outstanding chapter of merit. Dr. Stoll is president of Phi Kappa Phi, Chapter 79.
- DR. Jennifer M. Beller – affiliate member of the Center has been to speak at the Fourth Annual Pacific Lutheran University Wang Center for Global Education 2010 International Symposium Understanding the World Through Sports and Recreation Thursday and Friday March 4 and 5, 2010 I will be speaking on the intersection between performance enhancing drugs in sport and the use of performance enhancing measures by the boomer generation.