

THIS WEEK AT THE CENTER FOR ETHICS*

Friday, February 27, 2009

- Human Assurance Committee

- Dr. Stoll sits on the University of Idaho Human Assurance Committee and reviewed two proposals for assurance this week.

- Job Searches for Ph.D. students

- Peter VanMulleem travels to Coastal Carolina next week and Central Missouri the week after.
- David Brunner is settled in at his new position, at Charleston Southern University, where he is the wide receivers coach. David is schedule to finish his degree in May, 2009. An article on David can be found at: <http://csusports.athleticsite.com/article.asp?articleID=3034>

- Article Reviewed

- Dr. Stoll has been solicited by National Association for Kinesiology and Physical Education in Higher Education to review an article for publication in Quest. Quest is the leading scholarly journal for professionals in kinesiology & physical education in higher education today. Noted scholars in our field write about challenging issues and concerns facing professionals in higher education crossing disciplinary boundaries. Interdisciplinary perspectives are encouraged.

- Position Paper for National Association for Girls and Women's Sport

- Dr. Heather Van Mullem, Assistant Professor of Physical Education at Lewis Clark State University and Dr. Stoll have written a position paper on Sportswomanship for the National Association for Girls and Women's Sport. .NAGWS The National Association for Girls and Women in Sport -- the leading organization for equity issues in sports -- champions equal funding, quality, and respect for girls' and women's sports. NAGWS is one of six associations under the banner of the American Alliance of Health, Physical Education, Recreation, and Dance in Reston, VA.

Upcoming Events

- Dr. Stoll and doctoral candidate Justin Barnes travel to Bucharest for workshop with the Central and Eastern European Schools Association meeting, March 16-22. http://www.ceesa.org/conference_2009.html Thirteen schools in the Central and Eastern European Schools Association have agreed to do the Winning With Character Curriculum for next year. Truly makes WWC an international program. Winning With Character is a non-profit organization dedicated to teaching character to amateur athletes.
- Peter VanMulleem – dissertation defense scheduled for April 20, 2009, 9 a.m.
- Dr. Stoll to Tampa for the American Alliance of Health, Physical Education, Recreation and Dance. Dr. Stoll will be presenting with Dr. Kimberly Robertello of Washington State University and Justin Barnes: "Ethical Responsibilities and Preparedness of Coaches in Emergency Care Situations), and Dr. Stoll will be presenting with Dr. Heather VanMulleem of Lewis Clark State University, "Am I a Racist? A Sexist? Loaded Questions to Consider". . Dr. Stoll and Dr. Beller of Washington State University and Dr. Amukela Gwebu of University of Iowa will be presenting a research consortium free communication paper, "Moral Reasoning About performance-enhancing Drugs in Sport." . <http://www.aahperd.org>