

. THIS WEEK AT THE CENTER FOR ETHICS*

Friday, February 13, 2009

- Newsletter Out

- The February Newsletter went out today on running up the score. The Newsletter is to be published monthly on important issues concerning moral reasoning in sport and athletics. It is sent to coaches and interested individuals of the Center's work.

- Job Searches for Ph.D. students

- David Brunner was hired this week at College of Charleston Southern. David will be teaching and coaching. Pete VanMullem travels to both St Cloud and Coastal Carolina, and is a final in two other searches..

- Review.

- Dr. Stoll has been solicited to review another paper this week for Quest. Quest is for those in the physical activity field in higher education, there's no single journal that covers more topics of common interest than Quest. Each issue examines not only critical issues facing physical educators, but also research developments in the sport sciences and other sub disciplines of human movement. Dr. Stoll has reviewed 10 articles for Quest since March, 2008.

- Center soliciting interns

- Center staff has been interviewing interns. Hopefully we will find two excellent people to help us in our work..

- New Mexico Military Academy

- Dr. Stoll will be traveling to New Mexico Military Academy April 6-8 for a speaking and consulting trip on servant leadership and character education.

- Research Requests

- Research support requested from a Master's student at Eastern Kentucky

- IAHPERD convention

- A tentative new Ph.D. student Clinton Culp has submitted presentation for the IAHPERD (Idaho Association of Health, Physical Education, Recreation, and Dance) convention to be held in Moscow first week in October. Clinton has submitted his paper work to become a doctoral student in the College of Education, and to be a graduate assistant with the Center. Clinton, a major in the United States Marine Corps, is retiring this July and wants to continue his education in servant leadership. Dr. Stoll was a committee member on his thesis in Recreation and his problem statement was developed in a class taught by Dr. Stoll.

- Women's Law Group in Boise

- Dr. Stoll contacted by Lauri Thompson, clerk to the US Courts, District of Idaho, for a presentation on Title IX with a women's law group in Boise.. Lauri was a former student at Idaho, 1997, earned her law degree at Idaho and serves with Judge Edward Lodge, Chief District Judge.

- Ethics & Globalization

- *Douglas Lind, chair of the philosophy department informed Dr. Stoll that the proposal Ethics * justice in the Age of globalization RFI was approved for completion of a full proposal. Dr. Stoll is one of faculty on the list of presenters.*