

. THIS WEEK AT THE CENTER FOR ETHICS*

Friday, February 6, 2009

- Job Searches for Ph.D. students

- Pete Van Mullem is in the final selection pool for Coastal Carolina, and will be traveling to St. Cloud University for an interview on the 17th.

- Review.

- Dr. Stoll reviewed a paper this week for Quest. Quest is for those in the physical activity field in higher education, there's no single journal that covers more topics of common interest than Quest. Each issue examines not only critical issues facing physical educators, but also research developments in the sport sciences and other sub disciplines of human movement.

- Data Out

- Data went out this week for Finger Lake College, Canandaigua, New York. As part of the continuing work with WWC, data is analyzed for their clients in moral reasoning and moral development.

- Interview from Chronicle of Higher Education

- Dr. Stoll spoke with Brad Wolverton to some extent about the 40 hour rule in athletics. Whether any comments make it to his article or the cutting room floor is yet to be decided..

- New Mexico Military Academy

- Greg South Vice President of Health, Physical Education, and Athletics has been discussing with Dr. Stoll a possible trip to the Academy to speak on character.

- Research Requests

- .Research request from University of Utah. Including the following commentary: I cannot tell you how much I have enjoyed studying, researching, and working in this arena. It has been a life-altering experience and truthfully, it began that afternoon at the University of Utah five years ago when I heard your presentation. I am implementing much of this in secondary settings now as a vice principal of a large high school in northern Utah
- Material and curriculum request from high school in McKinney, TX.

- Two New Coaches

- Two additional coaches have enrolled in the CEU program, Sport Servant Leadership for football coaches.

- Travel to Bucharest

- Dr. Stoll and Justin Barnes to Bucharest for the Central and Eastern European International Schools convention on March 16-22. This was approved by Provost for international travel.
