

THIS WEEK AT THE CENTER FOR ETHICS*

Friday, March 6, 2009

• Times OnLine

- Dr. Stoll is featured in The Times (London, England) in a piece by Stuart Weir. Stuart Weir is the Executive Director of Verité Sport – an organization dedicated to questions of honesty, truth, and spirituality in sport. <http://www.timesonline.co.uk/tol/comment/faith/article5840536.ece>

• Doctoral Dissertation Published

- Dr. Kimberly Robertello had her dissertation published this week through Verlag Publishing in Germany. VDM Verlag publishes more than 10,000 new titles and is thus one of the leading publishing houses of academic research. The advertisement for her book can be found at: http://www.amazon.com/Evidence-Based-Practices-Alcohol-Treatment-Robertello/dp/363912670X/ref=sr_1_1?ie=UTF8&s=books&qid=1236017542&sr=8-1
- Dr. Robertello finished her doctorate dissertation with Dr. Stoll and her research focused on providing alcohol treatment program facilitators a valid and reliable measurement tool to evaluate their existing alcohol treatment program. The RET assesses programs' theoretical frameworks, mission, goals, objectives, and client outcomes against existing evidence-based practices to create a complete view of the program and its effectiveness.

• Research Highlighted

- Dr. Kimberly Robertello has her research featured through Washington State University College of Coalition of Substance Abuse and Prevention, which can be found at: <http://ccsap.wsu.edu/default.asp?PageID=3277>

• Job Searches for Ph.D. students

Peter VanMullem traveled to Coastal Carolina for an interview this week.

• Position Paper for National Association for Girls and Women's Sport

- Dr. Heather Van Mullem, Assistant Professor of Physical Education at Lewis Clark State University and Dr. Stoll have written a position paper on Hazing for the National Association for Girls and Women's Sport. .NAGWS The National Association for Girls and Women in Sport -- the leading organization for equity issues in sports -- champions equal funding, quality, and respect for girls' and women's sports. NAGWS is one of six associations under the banner of the American Alliance of Health, Physical Education, Recreation, and Dance in Reston, VA.

• Upcoming Events

- Dr. Stoll and doctoral candidate Justin Barnes travel to Bucharest for workshop with the Central and Eastern European Schools Association meeting, March 16-22. http://www.ceesa.org/conference_2009.html Thirteen schools in the Central and Eastern European Schools Association have agreed to do the Winning With Character Curriculum for next year. Truly makes WWC an international program. Winning With Character is a non-profit organization dedicated to teaching character to amateur athletes.
- Peter VanMullem – dissertation defense scheduled for April 20, 2009, 9 a.m.
- April 1-3. Dr. Stoll to Tampa for the American Alliance of Health, Physical Education, Recreation and Dance. Dr. Stoll will be presenting with Dr. Kimberly Robertello of Washington State University and Justin Barnes: "Ethical Responsibilities and Preparedness of Coaches in Emergency Care Situations), and Dr. Stoll will be presenting with Dr. Heather VanMullem of Lewis Clark State University, "Am I a Racist? A Sexist? Loaded Questions to Consider". . Dr. Stoll and Dr. Beller of Washington State University and Dr. Amukela Gwebu of University of Iowa will be presenting a research consortium free communication paper, "Moral Reasoning About performance-enhancing Drugs in Sport." . <http://www.aahperd.org>
- April 6-8. Dr. Stoll to Roswell, New Mexico, to speak with the New Mexico Military Institute on character education. Dr. Stoll was invited by former HPERD doctorate graduate, Gregory South. Dr. South was a student of Dr. Damon Burton studying sport psychology.