

THIS WEEK AT THE CENTER FOR ETHICS*

Friday, May 29, 2009

- Abstract Accepted

- Dr. Stoll and Dr. Jennifer Beller of Washington State University had a paper accepted for the International Association for the Philosophy of Sport Program, August 27-30, at Seattle University. The title of their paper is: Intervention Programs in Moral Reasoning – How Education Can Help Coaches For more information on the conference, link to: <http://www2.seattleu.edu/artsci/sportcenter/default.aspx?id=20406>.

- Newsletter Article featured in Envision

- Dr. Stoll's article, "When is Enough, Enough" will be featured in the College of Education Envision magazine. To read the article go to: <http://ethicswithdoc.blogspot.com>

- Barnes in Envision

- Doctoral candidate and Center Graduate Assistant will be featured in the College of Education Envision magazine. Justin is a third generation Idaho graduate and his story and his family's story is featured.

- Barnes and Brunner at NASSM

- Justin Barnes, doctorate candidate and David Brunner, Ph.D. (recently hooded and Dr. Stoll's 18th doctoral student) are presenting a paper May 27-30 at Columbia, S.C. , titled: Time for a Change: Why Rule based Ethics Are Problematic for Sport Management. See: http://www.nassm.com/NASSM2009/ProgramSchedule/ps_friday.php The purpose of the North American Society for Sport Management is to promote, stimulate, and encourage study, research, scholarly writing, and professional development in the area of sport management - both theoretical and applied aspects.
- Andy Rudd, Ph.D., Dr. Stoll's 4th doctoral student, is also presenting at NASSM. The title of his presentation, A Qualitative Investigation of Sport Managers' Moral Judgments Using the MJSMI. See: http://www.nassm.com/NASSM2009/ProgramSchedule/ps_friday.php Dr. Stoll helped develop Dr. Rudd's instrument in this investigation.