

IN BRIEF: THIS WEEK AT THE CENTER FOR ETHICS*

Friday, April 6, 2012

*The Center for ETHICS* at the University of Idaho offers study, intervention, outreach, consultation, and leadership in developing and advancing the theory, knowledge and understanding of character education including moral and ethical reasoning, moral development, ethical leadership, and ethical application. The Director of the Center is Dr. Sharon Kay Stoll http://www.educ.uidaho.edu/center\_for\_ethics Newsletter is on hiatus; but weekly or twice monthly updates will be sent out to keep our supporters abreast of what is occurring at the Center. This is a brief synopsis of the week's happening while Newsletter.*

Dr. Stoll and Dr. Beller will be doing an online coaching seminar for the Coaching Education Day Virtual Program through the National Association of Sport and Physical Education (NASPE) through the American Alliance of Health, Physical Education, Recreation, and Dance (AAHPERD).

Dr. Stoll finished the galley proof for her article, Loyalty: Why is it so problematic in athletics. Journal of College and Character, to be published online by NASPA in the May.

Clinton A. Culp, Doctoral Candidate, had an article accepted for publication in the Marine Corps Gazette, the professional journal for Marine Officers. The article, Character education at The Basic School and beyond, will detail his study and implementation of an improved character education program for new Marine Corps Lieutenants.

The Center for ETHICS* and The World Anti-Doping Agency (WADA) are working on a collaborative education project, Competing with Honor: To Dope or Not to Dope. One of the projects goals is to educate high-level athletes on the value competing drug free. Upon successful completion of the initial project the course will become part of WADA's educational curriculum.

If you would like to have your athletes participate in the project please contact Dr. Stoll at (ssstoll@uidaho.edu).
