

IN BRIEF: THIS WEEK AT THE CENTER FOR ETHICS*

Friday, April 20, 2012

*The Center for ETHICS* at the University of Idaho offers study, intervention, outreach, consultation, and leadership in developing and advancing the theory, knowledge and understanding of character education including moral and ethical reasoning, moral development, ethical leadership, and ethical application. The Director of the Center is Dr. Sharon Kay Stoll http://www.educ.uidaho.edu/center\_for\_ethics Newsletter is on hiatus; but weekly or twice monthly updates will be sent out to keep our supporters abreast of what is occurring at the Center. This is a brief synopsis of the week's happening while Newsletter.*

Dr. Jackie Williams (Dr. Stoll's 14th Doctoral Student, 2007) was granted tenure at Slippery Rock University Department of Exercise and Rehabilitative Sciences. Jackie's research line is focused on ethics training of Athletic Training Students.

Dr. Stoll and Dr. Beller will be recording a webinar of their presentation of "From Jim Tressel to Joe Paterno: What to Learn from the Current Ethics Scandals in Sport"... for NASPE's Coaching Education Day that was cancelled when the American Alliance of Health, Physical Education, Recreation and Dance convention was suspended due to a fire.

Dr. Stoll attended a workshop this week on BbLearn.

Dr. Stoll has been invited to be a reviewer for International Journal of Sports Science and Coaching, which resides at Leeds University in the UK.

Preparations are in the final stages for invitation to Reza Shajie to study at the Center this summer. Mr. Shajie is from Tarbiat Modares University in Iran.

Clinton A. Culp's dissertation research is featured on the University of Idaho web page: Improving Ethics in the Marines

The Center for ETHICS* and The World Anti-Doping Agency (WADA) are working on a collaborative education project, Competing with Honor: To Dope or Not to Dope. One of the projects goals is to educate high-level athletes on the value competing drug free. Upon successful completion of the initial project the course will become part of WADA's educational curriculum.

If you would like to have your athletes participate in the project please contact Dr. Stoll at (ssstoll@uidaho.edu).
