

IN BRIEF: THIS WEEK AT THE CENTER FOR ETHICS*

Friday, April 27, 2012

*The Center for ETHICS* at the University of Idaho offers study, intervention, outreach, consultation, and leadership in developing and advancing the theory, knowledge and understanding of character education including moral and ethical reasoning, moral development, ethical leadership, and ethical application. The Director of the Center is Dr. Sharon Kay Stoll http://www.educ.uidaho.edu/center\_for\_ethics Newsletter is on hiatus; but weekly or twice monthly updates will be sent out to keep our supporters abreast of what is occurring at the Center. This is a brief synopsis of the week's happening while Newsletter.*

Doctoral Candidate Clinton Culp defended his dissertation “The pedagogy of moral reasoning of U.S. Marine Corps lieutenants while at The Basic School” on Monday, April 23, 2012, and became Clinton Culp, Ph.D. (of course on condition of all paper work being submitted and approved). Dr. Culp is Dr. Stoll’s 21st completed doctoral student.

Major Paul Ovalle, USMC, was in attendance representing The Basic School, Quantico, Virginia. Major Ovalle was the Company Commander for Fox Company, the first company to receive the new character education curriculum and pedagogy.

Doctoral Candidate Tom Grant (scheduled to complete this summer) has secured a teaching position in journalism with Abraham Baldwin Agricultural College, a state College of the University system of Georgia.

Lynda Cochran Sperazza, Ph.D., Dr. Stoll’s 13 doctoral student, received official word of attaining promotion and tenure at Brockport. She is now an Associate Professor and Graduate Program Coordinator in the Department of Recreation and Leisure Studies at the College of Brockport, in the State University of New York system. Dr. Sperazza’s research line continues in programming specializing on the effect of the baby boomer generation on leisure needs.

The Center for ETHICS* and The World Anti-Doping Agency (WADA) are working on a collaborative education project, Competing with Honor: To Dope or Not to Dope. One of the projects goals is to educate high-level athletes on the value competing drug free. Upon successful completion of the initial project the course will become part of WADA’s educational curriculum.

If you would like to have your athletes participate in the project please contact Dr. Stoll at (ssoll@uidaho.edu).
