

IN BRIEF: THIS WEEK AT THE CENTER FOR ETHICS*

Thursday, August 16, 2012

The Center for ETHICS* at the University of Idaho offers study, intervention, outreach, consultation, and leadership in developing and advancing the theory, knowledge and understanding of character education including moral and ethical reasoning, moral development, ethical leadership, and ethical application. The Director of the Center is Dr. Sharon Kay Stoll http://www.educ.uidaho.edu/center\_for\_ethics Newsletter is on hiatus; but weekly or twice monthly updates will be sent out to keep our supporters abreast of what is occurring at the Center. This is a brief synopsis of the week's happening while Newsletter.

Dr. Stoll received an email from Abby DeHaas, a graduate student at The Citadel Military College, about Dr. Stoll's article "The Problem of Ethics and Athletics: An Illegitimate Stepsister". In her email, Abby stated, "After reading your article I'm more than enthused about your concept of placing athletics under the academic umbrella. It's a concept that I'd never heard and am now very interested in learning more about".

A certificate was awarded to Thomas Sousa for completion of the Sport Servant Leadership CEU program here at the Center/University of Idaho. We are hopeful that this program will in time be an active online education program for coaches in the US.

Dina Mijacevic, doctoral candidate, is in the final stages of dissertation preparation. Her dissertation title is: Where Soul Meets Body: A Phenomenological Description of Sport Experience, Human Movement, Play, Exercise and Mind/Body Wholism through Storytelling. Dina is Dr. Stoll's 23rd Ph.D. candidate.

Brad Dieter, doctoral student, is the new graduate assistant for the Center for ETHICS*. He recently finished his M.S. degree at the University of Idaho and is beginning his Ph.D. work with Dr. Stoll. Brad is Dr. Stoll's 27th Ph.D. student.

The Center for ETHICS* and The World Anti-Doping Agency (WADA) are working on a collaborative education project, Competing with Honor: To Dope or Not to Dope. One of the projects goals is to educate high-level athletes on the value competing drug free. Upon successful completion of the initial project the course will become part of WADA's educational curriculum. If you would like to have your athletes participate in the project please contact Dr. Stoll at (ssstoll@uidaho.edu).
