Dr. Grant successfully defended his dissertation titled, "Comparing the Principle-Based SBH Maieutic Method to Traditional Case Study Methods of Teaching Media Ethics" today, Friday, October 26th. Tom is Dr. Stoll's 23rd Ph.D. student. Dr. Kenton Bird, Dr. Allen Kitschel, and Dr. Rick Edgeman along with Dr. Stoll were on Dr. Grant's committee.

Dr. Stoll finished another review for Quest. Quest is the leading scholarly journal for professionals in kinesiology & physical education in higher education today. Quest's primary purpose is to publish manuscripts that address issues and concerns relevant and meaningful to kinesiology & physical education in higher education. The journal does not publish original research reports but welcomes manuscripts that are based on, complement, or review empirical research related to our profession. Both theoretical and practice-based articles are considered.

Dr. Stoll as editor of the International Association of the Philosophy of Sport newsletter, completed October, 2012 edition. The newsletter can be found at:
