Dr. Stoll was invited to speak at the Lewiston City Library. The Lewiston City Library is collaborating with Lewis Clark Center for Arts and History this spring on a Smithsonian Traveling Exhibition entitled Hometown Teams. The Center for Arts and History received the grant and will be installing the main exhibits to be debuted to the public on Saturday, April 19, 2014. The library is concentrating on Women's athletics during the six weeks that the exhibit will be here in Lewiston, they requested Dr. Stoll speak on ethics as it pertains to sports, especially women's sports.

Dr. Stoll completed a review and assessment for a grant in sport, women, and participation through the Research of Social Sciences and Humanities Research council of Canada. The Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada (SSHRC) is the federal research funding agency that promotes and supports postsecondary-based research and training in the humanities and social sciences. By focusing on developing Talent, generating Insights and forging Connections across campuses and communities, SSHRC strategically supports world-leading initiatives that reflect a commitment to ensuring a better future for Canada and the world. Created by an act of Canada's Parliament in 1977, SSHRC reports to Parliament through the Minister of Industry.

Brad Dieter and Mike Vaccaro recorded seven more videos for project Evolv3Sixty. During the year of 2014 they are working in collaboration with 3Sixty Athletics to help people through the process of "evolution". They will be positing daily videos with small bits of information to improve all areas of your life: training, nutrition, stress management, mobility, and relationships. The videos can be found at the following link: <http://www.evolutionary-health.com/project-evolve-3sixty.html>

There is a Graduate Assistantship open for the academic year 2014-2015 at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas. The position is a mix of programming and marketing design. Please contact Starr Wharton at Starr.Wharton@unlv.edu for more details.
