The Center for ETHICS* weekly is on summer hiatus: a monthly report is distributed.

In the Office:

Julie Latrell, master's student in Movement and Leisure Sciences, is spending her summer at the Center for ETHICS* as an intern.

Brad Dieter is a lab assistant this summer collecting final data for his dissertation. He is a research assistant at the Marsh Lab, Washington State University, Experimental and Systems Pharmacology, Spokane, WA.

Reviews:

Dr. Stoll has been contacted by The Hong Kong Institute of Education Committee on Research and Development Assessment for a review of one of their Research Centers. HKIED is a university-level institution offering teacher education and multi-disciplinary programs at the bachelor, master and doctoral level. HKIED has six research centers.

Dr. Stoll is presently reviewing grant proposals for NASPE/ING. ING Run for Something Better School-Based Running Programs awards 50 grants each year with up to $2500 awarded. Dr. Stoll has sat as a reviewer for NASPE/ING for several years. NASPE is the National Association of Sport and Physical Education located in Reston, Virginia.

Research:

Dr. Stoll and Dr. Beller submitted two research proposals to the Research Consortium of SHAPE America for the 2015 convention in Seattle, WA. The proposals are led by three of Dr. Stoll's students.

Latrell, J., Stoll, S.K., Beller, J. M. Moral reasoning relative to social justice issues in intercollegiate sport.

Edwards, T., Ellington, D., Stoll, S. K., & Beller, J. M. Health care attitudes & burnout of graduate student athletic trainers.

Dr. Stoll and Dr. Beller submitted two proposals for 75 minute presentations at the 2015 SHAPE America Convention in Seattle, WA.

Beller, J. M. & Stoll, S.K. Reducing Fear & Trepidation about Research Methods and Statistics. 2015 SHAPE America Convention in Seattle, WA.

Beller, J.M. & Stoll, S.K., Coaching a Gen-Y Athlete: Ways to be Successful. 2015 SHAPE America Convention in Seattle, WA.

Publications:

Dr. Stoll had a paper published with p.e.links:

Stoll, S. K. (2014). A tale of two contrasts: Being a coach and being coached, 16(15).
