Dr. Stoll was invited to speak at the 2014 High School Athletic Directors Summer Institute in Minnetonka, MN. . Her talk is titled, "Understanding Ethics and the 21st Century Student: How do we as educational leaders more effectively reach the 21st century student-athlete?", The goal of her talk is to seek to understand what motivates today's athletes and how to guide today's athletes regarding moral education and character development while seeking success in today's competitive populations.

Dr. Stoll sits on the IRB board and reviewed an IRB submission this week.

Brad Dieter will be speaking at the 2014 Fall Continuing Medical Education Meeting for the Washington Association of Physicians' Assistants, in????. His topic will be on the research and evidence regarding the efficacy of specific dietary interventions in treating type 2 diabetes mellitus. The talk will use the current research to develop dietary therapies for treating type 2 diabetes ~~in the clinic~~.
