

Ethical Theory and Honor in Competition and Sport

RIGHT WRONG

The Center for ETHICS* at the University of Idaho offers study, intervention, outreach, consultation, and leadership in developing and advancing the theory, knowledge and understanding of character education including moral and ethical reasoning, moral development, ethical leadership, and ethical application. The Director of the Center for ETHICS* is Dr. Sharon Kay Stoll.

Letter of Recommendation

Dr. Stoll wrote a letter of recommendation for Mohd Asmadzy Ahmad Basra for entrance into the Ph.D. in Recreation Sport and Tourism program at the University of Illinois. Asmadzy was a Master's student with Dr. Stoll and did his thesis on the "Effect of an Outdoor Adventure Program on Self-Esteem of Malaysians" which was orally presented at the Research Consortium Conference of the 2011 AAHPERD National Convention and Exposition in San Diego, CA, and the research abstract published in the Supplement of the March, 2011, Research Quarterly.

International Journal of Coaching Science

Dr. Stoll has been accepted to sit on the Editorial Board of the International Journal of Coaching Science.

Dr. Jennifer M. Beller: WSU Teaching Academy

Dr. Jennifer M. Beller, affiliate with the Center for ETHICS* and an Associate Professor at WSU in Educational Leadership, Sport Studies, and Educational/Counseling Psychology, has been accepted to the prestigious WSU Teaching Academy. The mission of the Washington State University Teaching Academy is to recognize teaching excellence among its members and to provide high-level university-wide advocacy and focused energy needed to enable WSU to offer an outstanding educational experience to students at a research university.

Next Week

The Center for ETHICS* Newsletter will be on hiatus next week while we observe fall break for the university.
