

Ethical Theory and Honor in Competition and Sport

RIGHT WRONG

The Center for ETHICS* at the University of Idaho offers study, intervention, outreach, consultation, and leadership in developing and advancing the theory, knowledge and understanding of character education including moral and ethical reasoning, moral development, ethical leadership, and ethical application. The Director of the Center for ETHICS* is Dr. Sharon Kay Stoll.

Dr. Stoll submitted a review for QUEST this week. Quest is a journal of National Association Kinesiology in Higher Education. The mission of NAKHE is to foster leadership in kinesiology administration and policy as it relates to teaching, scholarship and service in higher education.

Dr. Stoll along with her 33rd doctoral student, Kevin Bryant, will be at Shape America convention in Minneapolis, Minnesota next week. SHAPE America is the Society of Health and Physical Educators – and is committed to empowering all children to lead healthy and active lives through effective and physical education programs.
