

Ethical Theory and Honor in Competition and Sport

RIGHT WRONG

The Center for ETHICS* at the University of Idaho offers study, intervention, outreach, consultation, and leadership in developing and advancing the theory, knowledge and understanding of character education including moral and ethical reasoning, moral development, ethical leadership, and ethical application. The Director of the Center for ETHICS* is Dr. Sharon Kay Stoll.

Dr. Stoll has agreed to speak to the faculty at Whittier College in Southern California. Dr. Stoll will be speaking on the topic of sport ethics. A date for this speaking event has not be set.

The Center of Ethics* will be implementing the Winning With Character program for the football program at Faulkner University in Montgomery, Alabama. Head coach, Charles Boren, has worked with Dr. Stoll previously at St. Clair County High School in Alabama.

Kevin Bryant, Dr. Stoll's 32nd doctoral student, will be speaking at the PEMCO All-Sports clinic in Seattle, Washington on February 12th-14th. Kevin will have 7 presentations to high school athletic directors over the two days.
