

Ethical Theory and Honor in Competition and Sport

RIGHT WRONG

The Center for ETHICS* at the University of Idaho offers study, intervention, outreach, consultation, and leadership in developing and advancing the theory, knowledge and understanding of character education including moral and ethical reasoning, moral development, ethical leadership, and ethical application. The Director of the Center for ETHICS* is Dr. Sharon Kay Stoll.

Dr. Stoll has agreed to present to the Moscow High School Bears Coaching Alliance (BCA). The presentation will cover the topics of character, competition, and moral reasoning in sport. The date for the presentation has yet to be set.

Dr. Stoll and her 33rd doctoral student, Marcis Fennell, have collected, analyzed, and sent out data from student athletes enrolled at Georgia Military College using the Rudd Stoll Hahm Values Inventory.

Up Coming Events

Kevin Bryant, Dr. Stoll's 32nd doctoral student, will be speaking at the PEMCO All-Sports clinic in Seattle, Washington on February 12th-14th. Kevin will have 7 presentations to high school athletic directors over the two days.
