The Center for ETHICS* weekly is on summer hiatus: a monthly report is distributed.

Research:

Dr. Stoll and members of the center research team (Dr. Jennifer Beller, Washington State University, P. VanMullen, Lewis-Clark State College, Kevin Bryant, Ph.D. candidate, and Marcis Fennell, Ph.D. Student, recently submitted a chapter for review, Leadership – The Act of Serving, with InTech Open. InTechOpen is the publisher of the world's largest collection of open access books covering the fields of Science, Technology and Medicine. With a goal to provide free online access to research since 2004, InTechOpen has published 2,669 books and 44,852 scientific works by 93,150 international scientists.

Grant Contract won

The Center for Ethics is a contract awardee in a grant that has been accepted by the National Centers for Academic Excellence in Cybersecurity. The $30,000 contract award to the Center is to support the pedagogical work of the 1 million dollar project directed by Barbara Endicott Popvosky, Ph.D. Executive Director, Center for Information Assurance and Cybersecurity, University of Washington. The purpose of this project is to create an online, interdisciplinary, graduate, veteran/military friendly, cyber response program that can serve both transitioning veterans and future military and civilian leaders. The course content will incorporate relevant interdisciplinary topics provided by a group of SME's from law, ethics and pedagogy who will comprise an Executive Steering Committee (ESC) that will meet regularly to review content and insert topics that will integrate several subjects into the course.

Book Review

Dr. Stoll received the final copy of a book review that she did for an upcoming Journal of the Philosophy of Sport. The review of the Routledge Handbook of the Philosophy of Sport, will appear in the fall issue.

National Presentations:

Dr. Stoll with two of her graduate students submitted proposals for presentations at the 2017 SHAPE America Convention in Boston, MA. Notification of acceptance is September, 2016.
