As some of you may know students may appeal from the Student Disciplinary Review Board to a three person faculty committee comprised of faculty senate members. Generally Faculty Senate members are appointed to these committees based on availability. After reviewing a number of these appeals from last year, Senate Leadership has suggested that we consider the formation of a review panel similar to the Faculty Appeals Panel that could receive some Title IX training and have, the opportunity to become familiar with the appeals process and possibly be composed of a broader group of faculty then those on the Senate. Committee on Committee has discussed and approved the function/structure of this new committee which comes to senate as a seconded motion.

Student Appeals Committee – FSH 1640.83

A. Function. To conduct a review at the request of a student who wishes to appeal a decision of the Student Disciplinary Review Board. Faculty Senate Leadership will make a determination as to whether the student’s appeal meets the qualifications as stated in FSH 2400 C-6 and if so, will form a review panel (see B-1 below) from the committee.

B. Structure and Membership. The committee shall be composed of nine members to include six faculty (at least two will be from the current year’s Faculty Senate) and three students (at least one undergraduate and one graduate student) who will be eligible to serve on a review panel (see B-1 below). The term of membership is three years, with initial terms staggered to form a rotation pattern. Each committee member will be required to participate in Title IX training.

B-1. Review Panel: For each appeal, Faculty Senate Leadership will select a three person review panel from the above committee. If possible, each panel will consist of two faculty (one of whom serves as chair) and one student.
