Rationale and Assessment Information
This section must be completed

Rationale for approval of this request as appropriate; include an explanation of how the department will manage the added workload of the new program component and any relevant assessment information that applies, describe whether the program component, curriculum, and admission requirements remain the same, describe the rationale for a name change or degree designation change:

The Philosophy Department unanimously chooses to only have a minor in philosophy and a minor in bioethics. We no longer have enough faculty members to service this certificate program.

Distance Education Availability
This section must be completed
To comply with the requirements of the Idaho State Board of Education (SBOE) and the Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities (NWCCU) the University of Idaho must declare whether 50% or more of the curricular requirements of a program may be completed via distance education. If the program component is to be offered via distance education, additional or different formwork may be required. Contact provost@uidaho.edu for assistance.

The U.S. Department of Education defines distance education as follows: Distance education means education that uses one or more of the technologies listed below to deliver instruction to students who are separated from the instructor and to support regular and substantive interaction between the students and the instructor, either synchronously or asynchronously. The technologies may include—

1. The internet;
2. One-way and two-way transmissions through open broadcast, closed circuit, cable, microwave, broadband lines, fiber optics, satellite, or wireless communications devices;
3. Audio conferencing; or
4. Video cassettes, DVDs, and CD-ROMs, if the cassettes, DVDs, or CD-ROMs are used in a course in conjunction with any of the technologies listed in paragraphs (1) through (3).
