PREAMBLE: This section contains statements of the function and structure of each university-level standing committee. The names of persons appointed to serve on each such committee are published at the beginning of each academic year by the Committee on Committees, and copies of this publication are available from the Office of the Faculty Secretary (208-885-6151). This section, dating to the 1979 edition of the Handbook, has been frequently revised as necessitated by the changing mission or membership of existing committees or the deletion of obsolete committees or the addition of new ones.

CAMPUS PLANNING ADVISORY COMMITTEE

A. FUNCTION.

A-1. To advise the Faculty Senate and the president concerning campus planning, including such areas as the following: [ed. 7-09]

a. To recommend projects that affect the campus environment and to review such projects that originate outside of the committee.
b. To encourage optimal use of UI’s human and physical resources in the planning of campus development.
c. To consider faculty and staff views concerning interrelationships between academic and support programs and their environment.
d. To be concerned with both short-term and long-term projects and with their immediate and future implications.
e. To be concerned with the coordination of campus and community planning: keeping informed on development planning in the community, taking such planning into consideration in campus planning, and informing community planners of projected campus developments.

A-2. To present annually to the Faculty Senate and the president a report on the campus plan. Because of the responsibility of the vice president for infrastructure finance and administration for overseeing facility planning and maintenance [see 1420 B-1], this committee regularly reports to the president through that vice president. [ed. 7-09]

B. STRUCTURE. Five faculty members, two of whom are elected by and from Faculty Senate. The committee’s chair will be selected from one of these five. The other members of the committee will be the Vice President for Infrastructure Finance and Administration (or designee), the Assistant Vice President for Facilities, the CIO Executive Director of Information Technology, one staff member, and the Coordinator of Disabled-Student Services (or designee).
