Dear <Firstname>:

Congratulations on your admission to the University of Idaho for the <Term> semester! Being admitted to Idaho’s comprehensive, national land-grant university means that you now have a place at one of the nation’s leading universities. Earning a degree at U-Idaho will enable you to join a long line of successful leaders in science, engineering, business, public service, humanities and the arts – leaders who are making a positive impact on our world.

We are especially thrilled to extend to you this officer of admission since you personally come from a tradition of proud Vandal alumni. When you make UI your home, you’ll join the Vandal family that includes approximately 96,000 living alumni around the world, with 30,000 in Idaho alone. They will be a valuable network as you pursue your career.

Classes will begin <TermBeginDate>. Below is important information you will need for class registration and VandalMail account activation.

College(s):  <College1>   <College2>
Major(s):    <Major1>   <Major2>
ID Number:  <SID>

Now that you have been admitted, I encourage you to visit the Admitted Student’s page at www.uidaho.edu/admitted and check out your To-Do List. You will find important next steps for setting up your Vandal accounts, confirming your enrollment, connecting with your academic advisor and more.

Based upon your application, and in compliance with the Idaho statute, you have been classified as a <residency> for the purpose of attending the university.

<Firstname>, I again congratulate you on your admission. Please contact my office at 208-885-6326 or admissions@uidaho.edu should you or your family have any questions. I hope to see you on campus, and I welcome you to the University of Idaho! Go Vandals!

Sincerely,

Director of Admissions
Dear <Firstname>:

Congratulations on your admission to the University of Idaho for the <Term> semester! Being admitted to Idaho’s comprehensive, national land-grant university means that you now have a place at one of the nation’s leading universities. Earning a degree at U-Idaho will enable you to join a long line of successful leaders in science, engineering, business, public service, humanities and the arts – leaders who are making a positive impact on our world.

Here you will study alongside committed peers and world-class faculty in our premier academic programs. You will also learn about yourself in a setting where you are challenged to apply your knowledge to relevant issues and gain a competitive edge in a global marketplace.

Classes will begin <TermBeginDate>. Below is important information you will need for class registration and VandalMail account activation.

College(s): <College1> <College2>
Major(s): <Major1> <Major2>
ID Number: <SID>

Now that you have been admitted, I encourage you to visit the Admitted Student’s page at www.uidaho.edu/admitted and check out your To-Do List. You will find important next steps for setting up your Vandal accounts, confirming your enrollment, connecting with your academic advisor and more.

Based upon your application, and in compliance with the Idaho statute, you have been classified as a <residency> for the purpose of attending the university.

<Firstname>, I again congratulate you on your admission. Please contact my office at 208-885-6326 or admissions@uidaho.edu should you or your family have any questions. I hope to see you on campus, and I welcome you to the University of Idaho! Go Vandals!

Sincerely,

Director of Admissions