Proposed Honors Courses for Fall and Spring on a Recurring Annual Basis

Fall Desired Honors Courses
Lower Division courses with a cap of 30 students per course section

- Required English
  - Eng 102: College Writing and Rhetoric (3 cr) (desire 3-4 sections)
- Communications
  - Comm 101: Fundamentals of Public Speaking (2 cr) (currently taught each semester but a second section in either fall or spring would be ideal)
  - Engl 317 (3 cr) (currently taught in spring, but probably enough demand for a fall section)
- Natural and Applied Sciences (2-3 courses desired each semester)
  - Chem 111: Principles of Chemistry (4 cr)
  - CORS 219: Integrated Science (3 cr), Geog 100, Geol 101 or?
  - Physics 211 and 212 have been suggested by engineering students
  - Bio 115 and 116 have been suggested
- Math and Statistics
  - Stats 251: Statistical Methods (3 cr) (requested, but not currently an option)
- Social Sciences (3 courses desired each semester)
  - Psych 101: Introduction to Psychology (3 cr)
  - Geog 165: Human Geography (3 cr), or Soc 101, or Anthro 100 or?
  - Econ 201 or 202 (3 cr) (requested, but not currently an option)
- Humanities (3 courses desired in fall)
  - Phil 103: Introduction to Ethics (3 cr)
  - Eng 257: Literature of Western Civilization (3 cr)
  - Art 100 World Art and Culture, or Mush 101 Survey of Music, or AMST 301 Studies in American Culture or?
  - Spanish 308 has been suggested by Irina Crookston and students
- Integrated Studies (4 course sections desired in fall)
  - ISEM 101 (3 cr)

Upper Division Courses with a cap of 20 students per course section

- Integrated Studies
  - ISEM 301 (2-3 sections)
- Electives
  - Engr 350: Mechanics of Materials (3 cr)
  - INTR 450: Interdisciplinary Colloquium: Insight and Creativity (1 cr)
  - Chem 400 Energy Issues (2 cr) every other year,
  - Math 315: Topics in Pure Mathematics: The Infinite (3 cr)
  - Special topic courses (2-3 special topic courses each semester)
Spring Desired Honors Courses

Lower Division courses with a cap of 30 students per course section

- Required English
  - Eng 102: College Writing and Rhetoric (3 cr) (1 section)
- Communications
  - Comm 101: Fundamentals of Public Speaking (2 cr) (currently taught each semester, but a second section in fall or spring would be ideal)
  - Engl 317 (3 cr)
- Natural and Applied Sciences (2 courses)
  - Chem 112: Principles of Chemistry (5 cr)
  - CORS 219: Integrated Science (3 cr), Geog 100, Geol 101 or ?
  - Physics 211 and 212 have been suggested by engineering students
  - Bio 115 and 116 have been suggested
- Engineering and Statistics
  - Engr 210: Statics (3 cr)
  - Engr 220: Dynamics (3 cr)
  - Stats 251: Statistical Methods (3 cr) (requested, but not currently an option)
- Social Sciences (3 courses)
  - Geog 200: World Regional Geography
  - ANTH 220: Peoples of the World, or Soc 101 Introduction to Sociology (3 cr) or?
  - Econ 201 or 202 (requested, but not currently an option)
- Humanities (3 courses)
  - Phil 103: Introduction to Ethics (3 cr) (2 sections have been requested, but a second section is not currently an option)
  - Eng 258: Literature of Western Civilization (3 cr)
  - MusH 201: History of Rock and Roll 3 cr. (every other year), or Art 100: World Art and Culture, or MusH 101: Survey of Music (3 cr), or AMST 301 Studies in American Culture (3 cr) or?
- Integrated Studies (1 section in spring)
  - ISEM 101 (3 cr)

Upper Division Courses with a cap of 20 students per section

- Integrated Studies (2-3 sections)
  - ISEM 301 (1 cr)
- Electives
  - MusH 400: History of Film Music (3 cr) (every other year)
  - INTR 450: Interdisciplinary Colloquium: Insight and Creativity (1 cr), Kenton Bird and Dan Bukvich
  - Special topic seminars (2-3 special topics courses are needed each semester)