DRAFT Honors Courses for Fall 2016

Lower Division Courses (capped at 30 total students)

- English and Communications
  - English 102: College Writing and Rhetoric (2 sections), (Victoria Arthur)
  - Comm 101: Fundamentals of Public Speaking (Diane Carter)
- Natural and Applied Sciences
  - Chem 111: Principles of Chemistry I (Tom Bitterwolf)
  - CORS 2xx: Dan Stelck, Chemistry
- Social Sciences
  - Psychology 101: Introduction to Psychology (Russ Jackson)
  - Political Science 101: Introduction to Political Science and American Government (Brian Ellison)
- Humanities
  - English 257: Literature of Western Civilization (Tom Drake)
  - Philosophy 103: Ethics (Janice Capel Anderson)
  - Art 100: World Art and Culture (Val Carter)
- Integrated Seminars
  - ISEM 101: Sports and Society (Sharon Stoll)
  - ISEM 101: The Creative Mind (Elizabeth Sloan)
  - ISEM 101: The Monsters We Make: Asian edition. (Matt Wappett)

Upper Division Courses

- Honors Thesis Proposal Writing Course (being considered)
- Communications
  - English 317: Technical Writing (Karen Thompson)
- Integrated 301 Seminar (1 section in discussion but not yet identified)
- Engineering (taught through Engineering Scholars Program)
  - Engineering 350: Mechanics of Materials (Matt Riley)
- Honors Research opened as needed in each department
- Seminars (capped at 18 students per section)
  - INTR 404: Digital Privacy in the 21st Century (1 cr) (Rich Stoddart and Annah Hackett)
  - INTR 450: Interdisciplinary Colloquium: Insight and Creativity (1 cr), (Kenton Bird and Dan Bukvich)