TO: University Curriculum Committee
FROM: University Committee for General Education (Approved 5/2/2013)
RE: Proposed Changes to Regulation J-3-d
DATE: September 18, 2013

J-3-d. General Core Studies (18 cr): Within the requirements below, students must complete at least one upper division course, and must complete courses from at least three different disciplines. Integrated Seminar courses may not be counted towards the three discipline requirement.

I. Integrated Seminar (3 cr): One course from ISem 101-199 (open to freshmen only).
II. Humanities (6 cr): Six credits chosen from the approved humanities courses listed below.
III. Social Sciences (6 cr): Six credits chosen from the approved social science courses listed below.
IV. International Course: One course chosen from the approved international courses listed below. If a student takes a Great Issues Seminar (ISem 301), Humanities, or Social Science course that also appears on the list of approved international courses then this requirement is considered to be completed. This requirement may be waived if a student successfully completes an approved Summer, Fall, or Spring term abroad through the International Programs Office.
V. American Diversity: One course chosen from the approved American Diversity courses listed below. If a student takes a Great Issues Seminar (ISem 301), Humanities, or Social Science course that also appears on the list of approved American Diversity courses then this requirement is considered to be completed.
VI. Great Issues (1 cr): One credit of ISem 301.
VII. Senior Experience: One course chosen from the approved Senior Experience courses listed below.
VIII. Additional Course(s) (3 cr): Additional coursework to total 18 credits chosen from the approved senior experience, humanities, social sciences, american diversity, and international courses listed below.

J-3-d. Humanities (6 cr.) and Social Sciences (6 cr): Six credits chosen from the approved humanities courses listed below, and six credits chosen from the approved social sciences courses listed below.*

J-3-e. American Diversity Course and International Course: One course chosen from the approved American Diversity courses listed below. If a student takes a Great Issues Seminar (ISem 301), Humanities, or Social Science course that also appears on the list of approved American Diversity courses then this requirement is considered to be completed. One course chosen from the approved international courses listed below. If a student takes a Great Issues Seminar (ISem 301), Humanities, or Social Science course that also appears on the list of approved International courses then this requirement is considered to be completed. The international requirement may be waived if a student successfully completes an approved Summer, Fall, or Spring term abroad through the International Programs Office.*

J-3-f. Integrated Studies - ISEM 101 (3 cr), ISEM 301 (1 cr), and Senior Experience: One course from ISem 101-199 (open to freshmen only). One credit of ISem 301. One course chosen from the approved Senior Experience courses listed below.*

*Within the J-3-d, J-3-e, J-3-f requirements, students must complete at least one upper division course, and must complete courses from three different disciplines, for a total of 18 credits. ISEM 101 Integrated Seminars and ISEM 301 Great Issues Seminars do not count toward the three disciplines.

Approved Humanities Courses:

...