1. Add the following courses

Law 856 Legal Writing and Research for LL.M. Students (3 cr)
Short course: AMERICAN LEGAL WRITING & RES.
Basic principles of American legal writing for foreign-trained lawyers. Topics covered include the American court system, common law, case briefing, legal analysis, and fundamentals of legal research. Students complete multiple writing and research assignments of increasing complexity geared to exercise their analytical and problem solving abilities.
Prereq: Registered as L.L.M. student

Available via distance: No
Geographical area availability: Moscow
Rationale: The College of Law seeks the addition of these courses to our curriculum to support the development of our proposed LL.M. degree. Each of the courses are integral to the new degree program.

Law 857 Introduction to American Law and Legal Education (3 cr)
Short course: INTRODUCTION TO AMERICAN LAW
Examination of the American legal system for foreign-trained lawyers. Topics, related to both statutory and common law, include fundamental legal concepts, key doctrinal areas of law, the American legal education system, how laws are made and function, and how law evolves over time.
Prereq: Registered as L.L.M. student

Available via distance: No
Geographical area availability: Moscow
Rationale: The College of Law seeks the addition of these courses to our curriculum to support the development of our proposed LL.M. degree. Each of the courses are integral to the new degree program.