Teaching Experience:

Currently teaching a graduate level Mathematical Economics at the University of Idaho.

The materials covered in this course are Functions, Real Numbers, Matrix, Determinants, Differentiation, Unconstrained and Constrained Optimization, Integration, Differential Equations, and Linear and Nonlinear Programming.

Currently teaching a graduate level class on International Agricultural Trade and Policy, and Policy at the University of Idaho.

Topics covered in this course include: Introduction to Trade, Ricardian Models, Heckscher-Ohlin Model, Free Trade Analysis, Gains from Trade, Protectionism in Agriculture, Tariffs and Quotas, Variable Levy Policy and Trade, Deficiency Payments and Trade, Proportional Import Quotas, Production Subsidies, Voluntary Import Quota, Administrative Trade Distortions, Import Subsidies, Consumption Subsidies, Export Subsidies, Price Discrimination, Export Taxes, Embargoes, Intermediate Goods in Trade, Effective Protection, Trade Preferences, Exchange Rates and Trade Policy, and International Price Stabilization.

The course also requires papers by students.

Currently teaching an undergraduate course in Agricultural Markets in the Global Economy at the University of Idaho.

The topics covered in this course include Gains from Trade, Trade Policies of Importing Countries, Trade Policies of Exporting Countries, Multilateral Trade Negotiations, The GATT and WTO, Preferential Trade Agreements, Macroeconomics and its Influence on International Trade, Trade and the Environment, U.S. Agriculture, European Agriculture, Foreign Direct Investment and Processed Food Trade, Competitiveness in the Global Food Economy, International Market Opportunities and International Strategic Marketing.

Taught a graduate level Microeconomics at the University of Idaho in 1992 and 1994.

Topics covered in this course include: Review of Calculus, Matrix Algebra, Optimization, The Envelope Theorem, Duality, The Theory of Consumer Behavior, Special Topics in Consumer Theory, The Theory of Firm, Special Topics in Producer Theory, Market Equilibrium, and Imperfect Market.

Taught an advanced graduate level class on Quantitative Research on Agricultural Policy and Trade for six years from 1986 to 1991 at Iowa State University.

Topics covered in this course include: Demand Analysis, Supply Analysis, Inventory Modeling, Price Determination, Theoretical Foundations of Commodity Modeling, Crop Commodities Modeling, Livestock Commodities Modeling, Elasticities, Flexibilities, Multipliers, Price Stabilization, Risk and Uncertainty, Rational Expectations in Agricultural Models, Modeling Macroeconomic Linkages, and Modeling Trade Linkages.

The course also required papers by students.

Taught international trade policy topics in an Agricultural and Rural Policy course for undergraduate students in the Fall of 1987.

Topics covered include: Domestic Demand & Supply, Export Supply, Import Demand, Consumer Surplus, Producer Surplus, Agricultural Trade Policies, Protectionism, Commercial Trade Policies and Welfare Analysis.

Advising Experience:

I have advised undergraduate students, graduate students, and post-doctoral research associates. The primary reason I chose the academic career is to work with students as I enjoy very much helping students to be successful in their studies. Mentoring students is an important part of my job, and I take it very seriously. Advising, to me, is not just sequencing the course work, but also encouraging students to critically think, understand the subject matter, succeed in class, gain experience, and accomplish their academic goals. In my advising I successfully integrate co-teaching, co-researching, and co-authoring with my students. My overriding advising philosophy is to make myself available and ready to help students at all times.

The most important goal I set for my advisees is to excel in their studies and to graduate on time because the primary purpose they came to the U of I is to get a good education. I help the students to formulate vital goals in their studies and life and to grow as matured, well-rounded, and self-directed individuals. I would like to see my advisees make good progress by showing positive growth and development academically and also in their lives. I advise students to carefully select career options that fit their goals. While they are studying at the U of I, more importantly, I want them to enjoy, value, and treasure their experience.

International Work Experience:

USAID/CSREES/FAS/Indian Ministry of Agriculture project on strengthening agricultural marketing system in India

Curriculum development in Tamil Nadu Agricultural University in India

Increase the marketing opportunities of small farmers through farmers market in India

Establish farmers' cooperatives in India

Improving the small agricultural business operations in Haiti

Assessing the contribution of cotton sector to Zambian economy

Increasing the farm productivity in Kenya and Cameroon

Profitable crop and livestock enterprise mix in Tanzania

Effects of trade liberalization on Chilean agricultural markets

Teaching and Advising Professional Development:

Attended NACADA Webinar on "Significant Conversations: The Art and Science of Communication in Transformational Advising," November 6, 2008.

Foltz, J., and S. Devadoss, "Educating Agribusiness Students: Building the Institution-Industry Linkage in Agribusiness," First Annual Conference of Indian Society of Agribusiness Management, Bangalore, September 25-27, 2008.

Devadoss, S. and J. Foltz. "Teaching Methods, Course Materials, and Students' Class Attendance and Performance," Western Region Teaching Symposium, Utah State University, September 22-23, 2006.

Completed workshop on "Lecture Strategies," February 14, 2006.

Completed workshop on "Creating a Supportive Classroom Environment: Multicultural, Gender, Privacy, Access, Relationship and Age Issues," March 7, 2006.

Completed workshop on "Counseling and Understanding Students in the Classroom," March 7, 2006.

Attended a lecture on "Assessment of Student Learning Outcomes: University, Program, and Course Level, March 9, 2006.

Completed workshop on "Cooperative and Problem-Based Teaching Strategies" March 21, 2006.

Attended a lecture on "Click or Clap in the classroom – Which method Works? April 13, 2006.

Attended a presentation on "Transforming Undergraduate Education and the Role of the Core." April 18, 2006.

Completed workshop on "Assessment and Evaluation of Learning" May 2, 2006.

Academic Awards and Honors:

Teaching Excellence Award, University of Idaho, 2009.

Graduate Advising Excellence Award, University of Idaho, 2009.

Outstanding Undergraduate Teaching Award, the Western Agricultural Economics Association, 2009.

Major Professor for Jeff Luckstead's Master's Thesis selected by the University of Idaho for the Western Association of Graduate Schools for Distinguished Master's Thesis Award. Thesis title is "The Effects of Immigration, Farm, and Trade Policies and the Macroeconomic Conditions on Illegal Immigration and Agricultural Trade."

Major Professor for Jeff Luckstead's Outstanding Master's Thesis Award (First Prize), the Western Agricultural Economics Association, 2009. Thesis title is "The Effects of Immigration, Farm, and Trade Policies and the Macroeconomic Conditions on Illegal Immigration and Agricultural Trade."

Major Professor for Jeff Luckstead's Outstanding Master's Thesis Award (Honorable Mention), the Agricultural and Applied Economics Association, 2009. Thesis title is "The Effects of Immigration, Farm, and Trade Policies and the Macroeconomic Conditions on Illegal Immigration and Agricultural Trade."

Major Professor for Jeff Luckstead's Outstanding Master's Thesis selected by the Department of Agricultural Economics, University of Idaho, 2009. Thesis title is "The Effects of Immigration, Farm, and Trade Policies and the Macroeconomic Conditions on Illegal Immigration and Agricultural Trade."

Alumni Award for Excellence, University of Idaho Alumni Association, Fall 2008.

Graduate Faculty Mentoring Award, College of Graduate Studies, University of Idaho, 2008.

Excellence in Teaching Award, College of Agricultural and Life Sciences, University of Idaho, 2008.

Outstanding Faculty Award, DSS, University of Idaho, 2008.

Research Excellence Award, University of Idaho, 2004.

Historian of Gamma Sigma Delta Honor society, University of Idaho Chapter, 2000/2001.

President of Gamma Sigma Delta Honor Society, University of Idaho Chapter, 1999/2000.

Vice President of Gamma Sigma Delta Honor Society, University of Idaho Chapter, 1998/1999.

Outstanding Research Award, Gamma Sigma Delta Honor Society, College of Agricultural and Life Sciences, University of Idaho, 1996.

Osman Rahman. I supervised Rahman's work from December 2001 to present. Rahman is working on U.S.-Canada lumber trade disputes.

Antonio Gomez. Antonio's work (February 2001-May 2001) involved trade modeling of wheat sector and impact of trade liberalization policies on wheat market.

Wongun Song. I supervised Song's work from January 1999 to December 2000. Song worked on imperfect competition and trade, strategic trade policy, and export subsidy.

Sid Dasgupta. I supervised the work of Dasgupta from February 1997 to January 1998. He worked on topics related to game theory, international trade, and production economics.

Kent D. Lanclos. I have supervised the work of Dr. Lanclos since February 1994 to July 1996. Dr. Lanclos is working on the following projects: Impacts of the NAFTA and Uruguay Round of GATT on Idaho agriculture, trade policies and food processing industry, and economics of oligopsony markets.

WORK ON LEGISLATIVE REQUESTS

Member of the Commodity Trade Force. I was chosen by then Governor, Phil Batt, and continued under current Governor, Dirk Kempthorne as the University of Idaho expert to serve on this committee, which is headed by the Lt. Governor., Butch Otter, and comprised of 15 members from commodity commissions, government and academic staff. The purpose of this task force is to review U.S.-Canadian Free Trade Agreement, and North American Free Trade Agreement for ways to help protect Idaho farmers. The job of this task force is to advise the state government by identifying needed changes in these agreements and areas where better enforcement of current provisions is required.

Spent four weeks collecting information and conducting research to testify on the proposed legislation H.R. 1371: The Imported Meat Labeling Act of 1998 by U.S. Congressional Representative Helen Chenoweth. I presented testimony as an expert witness to a panel headed by Helen Chenoweth at the State Capitol Building in Boise. This project was assigned to me at the request of Dean David Lineback.

Presented testimony "Trade and Idaho Agriculture," to Agricultural Affairs Committee, January 28, 1999 at the State Capitol, Boise. This is a testimony. I spent three weeks preparing for this presentation. This project was assigned to me at the request of Dean Larry Branen.

I spent two weeks writing a report on the Impacts of the Uruguay Round of GATT on U.S. Agriculture. This report was requested by Senator Larry Craig. Dean David Lineback assigned this task to me.

Dr. Nelson and I explored the possibilities of obtaining grant funding from the U.S. congress. We wrote a letter to Dean David Lineback informing him to contact Idaho congressional staff for this type of funding.

Helped Larry Makus with a write-up of the effects of Idaho Wheat Growers' farm policy proposals. This request came from the Southern Idaho Congressman, Michael D. Carpo.

Binational Committee to investigate the grain trade in Canada and the United States. Dr. Nelson and Dean David Lineback asked to me serve on this committee at the request of Senator Larry Craig. The purpose of this committee is to evaluate how Canadian transportation subsidies and the monopoly power of the Canadian Wheat Board are affecting the U.S. grain markets.

Provided a write-up of the impacts of GATT and NAFTA on Idaho sugarbeet industry. Dean David Lineback requested this write-up for state legislator Jim Kempton and Al Johnson.
