

|

THE COUPLE BEFRIENDED
BY THE MOON

(YOUNG CRANE AS TOLD TO ROBERT LOWIE)

1. apsá·ruk hirékyo' dú·o'·tsfruk.
Crows this way were coming.

2. ambúako·n awaxá·we kuc dí·ru'·tsfruk.
From below mountain towards they walked.

3. acéwatsá·tsi'·tsfruk.
A big camp was there.

4. batsé·rflk tε·xiflflk úflwici'·tsfruk.
A man did not see well; he had a wife.

5. isá·cgyuo' hawátka·tdflk acú·o' iflká·cka·tdflk
Horses only one; their tent was small ictcitsu·ka·k ictúka·tua ictsitsú'ka·k.

one side of their pack their meat, they packed on one side.

6. bí·flc icbatsípbcdfk ba·parawi'·tsfruk.
The woman had a digger she was digging from time to time.

7. dú·sa'pe·tarà·riek' akbatsé·re
They went on one side of the camp When someone hunted,

ba·ce² batsá·tsit duadíflk
dead game there was plenty; they came.

annútsisùà dútsikya·tseru'·tsfruk.
to where it was killed. they took some of it.

8. karacé·c icí·urflk dú·ra dá·ckyén
The camp had camped. they came; on the outside icí·o'·tsfruk.

they camped.

9. batsé·sua icé·rflk karakur'fl'·tsflxit
They were poor very; when all had left,