Elliptical fault shape embedded in the crust.

Aspect ratio = fault length/fault height.

Horizontal plane intersecting a fault: only the fault trace is seen, ending at the fault tip.