

GETTING THERE.

• Train (suggested):
9:15 Edinburgh Waverley (EDB)
to Glasgow Queen St, (GLQ)
arr. 10:06

Return @ 19:00 (or any off-peak train)

Off-Peak Day Return, fare
w/16-25 Rail Card £12

• Walk from Queen St. Station west toward Buchanan Street, cross Buchanan to West Nile Street, left to beyond Gordon Street, look for the Lighthouse on your left—it's down the alley.

• Subway. Buchanan Street to Ibrox. From the Lighthouse go to and walk up Buchanan Street to the station. Walking instructions/map from Ibrox on next page.

10:30 The Lighthouse (free) <http://www.thelighthouse.co.uk/>

Self-guided visit. Make sure to see:

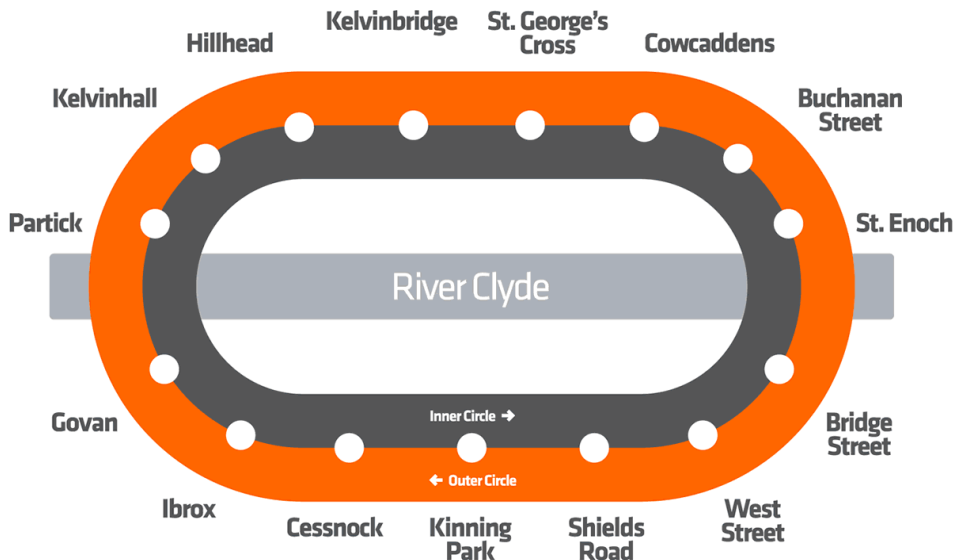

- Mackintosh Tower (climb it!) and Mackintosh Centre
- Best Use of Timber Awards
- Architecture Fringe

12:00 Take the subway from Buchanan Street station (either circle) to IBROX Station. Runs every 6-8 minutes.

Glasgow Subway All Day ticket (unlimited travel) is £4.20 at the station

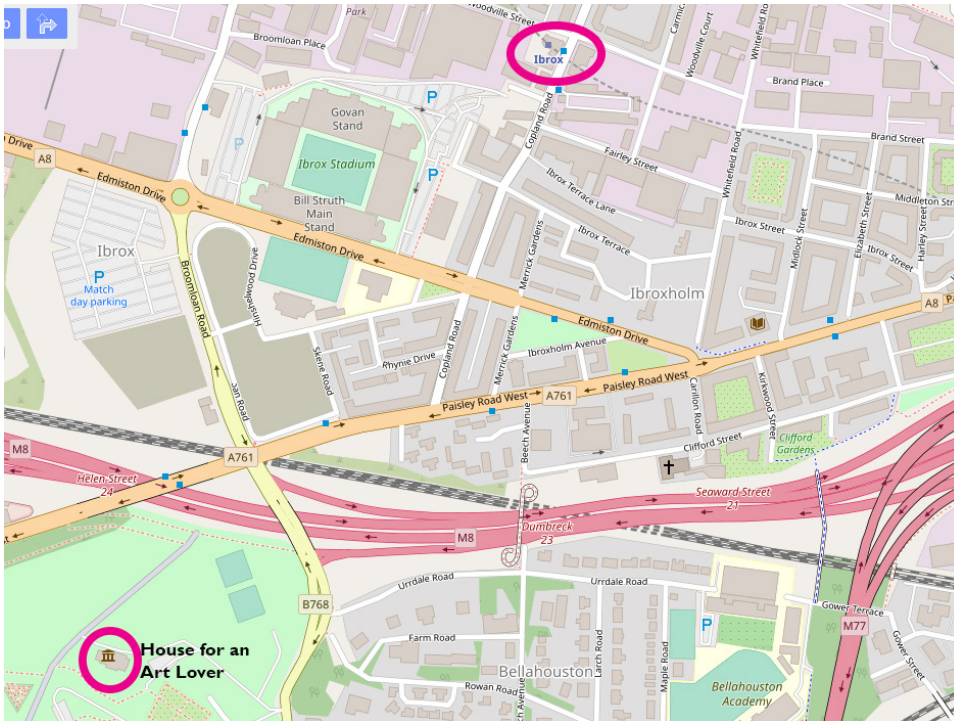

Note: Riverside Museum by Zaha Hadid is accessible from the Kelvinhall station.

Free entry 10am-5pm.
<https://www.glasgowlife.org.uk/museums/venues/riverside-museum>

Glasgow Metro (Subway) Map

GETTING THERE.

- Leaving Ibrox station, turn right and continue to the end of Copland Road, cross here and continue right walking along Paisley Road West until you reach the junction. Cross the road here and take a direct left walking across the flyover, continue along Dumbreck Road until you reach the entrance to Bellahouston Park on your right. (Marked Glasgow Ski Centre/ House for an Art Lover).

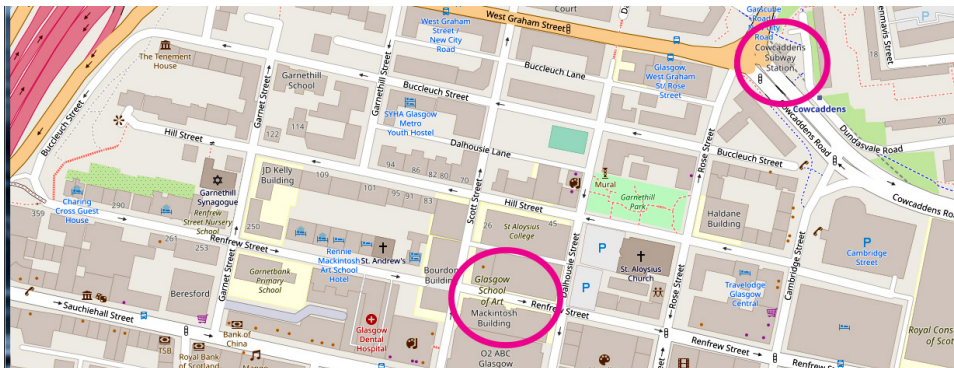

12:45 Sketching session at House for an Art Lover

13:00 House for an Art Lover (45-minute tour booked)

Architect: Charles Rennie Mackintosh

Subway stop is Ibrox the house is located approx 10/15 minutes away by foot.

15:30 Glasgow School of Art visit

Subway stop is Cowcaddens

Meet at Dalhousie Street entrance to the Reid Building by Steven Holl. Sketch before and/or after visit.

Your host is Tim Sharpe.

Enjoy Glasgow, strolling pedestrian-friendly Buchanan Street and taking tea at the Willows Tea House (corner of Buchanan Street and Mitchell Lane-open 9a-6:30p <<http://willowstea-rooms.co.uk>>), exploring the Argyll Arcade (Buchanan Street and Argyll Street), and whatever else strikes your fancy!

- Subway from Ibrox to Cowcaddens station, alight and use the underpass beneath Cowcaddens Road to Rose Street, right on Renfrew Street continue to Dalhousie Street, the Reid Building is on your right.

2015—From the corner of Renfrew and Dalhousie—Mackintosh Building standing on left, Reid Building under construction on right.