

. THIS WEEK AT THE CENTER FOR ETHICS*

Friday, December 5, 2008

- $50,000 Grant with WADA
 - Amukela Gwebu, University of Iowa and former doctoral student, won a $50,000 grant with WADA (World Anti Doping Agency) to develop an online Anti-doping education program. Dr. Stoll is also named on grant as consultant, thus the Center will be the major trust to develop this online program. The grant is for three years. The World Anti-Doping Agency (WADA) is the international independent organization created in 1999 to promote, coordinate, and monitor the fight against doping in sport in all its forms. Composed and funded equally by the sports movement and governments of the world, WADA coordinated the development and implementation of the World Anti-Doping Code (Code), the document harmonizing anti-doping policies in all sports and all countries. .
- Doctoral and Theses defenses set
 - Clinton Culp, recreation master's student in leadership, is set to defend his theses on Risk Behaviors in Mountain Climbing on Thursday, December 11..
 - Dr. Stoll is a committee member for Stephanie Kerr, (Chair Grace GocKarp. Her defense is set for December 12. Her topic is weight training for high school girls and its effect on personal growth.
- Presentations
 - David Brunner presented in PEP 201 this week reinforcing the importance of the mind and body in application in teaching and coaching.
- References out
 - Dr. Stoll wrote one letter of reference this week for an undergraduate to receive a scholarship, Andrew Price. Andrew was a student in Core Discovery in which Dr. Stoll teaches a section: Sport and society.