

THIS WEEK AT THE CENTER FOR ETHICS*

Friday, June 19, 2008

- Josh Graff, a sport ethics minor, and one of the original members of Dr. Stoll's first Core Discovery class, 2005-2006, at the University, secured an internship position with the Seattle Mariners. Josh's major is business. His goal is to be a Division I Athletic Director. Dr. Stoll was one of his letters of reference for the internship.
- One of our interns has a hiatus this next week as she journeys to Maui for a vacation retreat with high school friends. Sara Dennehy has been a wonderful addition to the Center and we look forward to her return.
- Dr. Stoll and Dr. Andrew Rudd of Florida State University had a paper accepted for publication in the Journal of Sport Management – a tier 1 journal in sport management, titled: Development of an instrument to measure moral judgment of sport managers. Dr. Rudd is a 1999 Ph.D. graduate of the Center and the Division of HPERD in sport ethics. Dr. Rudd is on the sport management faculty at FSU.
- David Brunner worked a Vandal football camp this week for high school students. David also did an intervention with 100 football players from Southridge High School in Kennewick, WA., June 17 and 18th. The head coach is Andy Troxel.
- Students and former students of the center prepared research/presentation proposals to be reviewed for acceptance at the 2009 American Alliance of Health, Physical Education, Recreation and Dance. Those submitting were Dr. Amekula Gwebu of University of Iowa, Dr. Kimberly Robertello of Washington State University, Justin Barnes and David Brunner doctoral students at the Center, and Pete VanMullen, doctoral candidate, who coaches and teaches at Lewis Clark State College.
- This Week at the Center will be on hiatus the Week of June 22-26
- Final agreement with Nolan Catholic to develop a curriculum is imminent. Dr. Stoll will create 72 lessons and Nolan Catholic will gift to the Center for ETHICS*..
- Coming events:
 - Training with WWC is scheduled for June 23 in Athens, GA, presently we have approximately 15 new schools scheduled, plus approximately 30 returning schools..
 - Dr. Stoll will be visiting Georgia Military College for a workshop on June 24 in Milledgeville, GA. Georgia Military has been a member of the WWC family for approximately five years. Georgia Military College is a public-independent educational institution, comprised of a junior college and a separate preparatory school (grades 6-12), whose mission and purpose is to produce educated citizens by providing junior college students with a liberal arts based two-year undergraduate curriculum, by providing selected college students with ROTC training, and by providing preparatory school students an inclusive college preparatory curriculum that includes a military training component--all in an environment conducive to the holistic development of the intellect and character of its students.

- Dr. Stoll will be traveling with Dr. Beller to Montana State to do workshop with football team, July 23 and 24. Montana State is the first Big Sky Team to become a part of the WWC family.
- Dr. Stoll will be traveling to Oklahoma City on Friday, August 1, with Winning With Character to do a workshop with a high school football team.
