

THIS WEEK AT THE CENTER FOR ETHICS*

Friday, October 31, 2008

- Sabbatical

- Dr. Chung Hae Hahm will be completing her sabbatical at the Center for ETHICS, from July, 2009 to February, 2010. . Dr. Hahm is a professor at Ehwa Women's University in Seoul, Korea. Dr. Hahm, a graduate of the University of Idaho, was instrumental in developing the most well-known, valid, and reliable instrument to measure moral reasoning in sport. Today, the Center for ETHICS* is the single largest repository of information in moral reasoning and moral development of athlete populations in the world largely due to Dr. Hahm's brilliance and foresight in the need for a new instrument to measure moral reasoning. Presently, we have about 80,000 inventory results from individuals from around the world. Parts of the instrument have been translated in six foreign languages.*

- Research Request

- Received request from Taiwan University.

- WWC Workshop in Bucharest

- Dr. Stoll and doctorate candidate Justin Barnes will retrace their steps to Europe in March, 2009, to do a workshop with the American International School system in Europe. A number of the schools in the American International School system are in process of contracting with Winning with Character, to use the Center's curriculum on character and leadership.

- Sport Servant Leadership for Coaches

- A new intervention for NAIA coaches has gone online this week. The intervention, educational program is designed to support the mission and values of the NAIA Champions of Character program. Developed by Doctoral Candidate, Pete VanMullem, presently 19 coaches are enrolled.

- Sport Servant Leadership for Football Coaches

- Two new students have enrolled for the session that is offered from October – December. Sport Servant Leadership is endorsed by the American Football Coaches Association. Enrollees also receive 3 CEUs from the University of Idaho..

- Data out at Center

- Data went out to Upson Lee High School, in Georgia..

- Review

- Dr. Stoll reviewed an article for Journal of Physical Education, Recreation, and Dance. The Journal of Physical Education, Recreation & Dance—is AAHPERD's largest, most frequently published and most wide-ranging periodical.
- Dr. Stoll reviewed on articles for Quest, the journal of the NAKPEHE- National Association of Kinesiology and Physical Education in Higher Education - is an organization for professionals in higher education. Its purpose is to foster leadership in teaching, administration, policy, preparation for the professions and scholarship. This mission is facilitated through interdisciplinary ideas, concepts and initiatives related to the role of kinesiology and physical education, while valuing diverse social, cultural and personal.
- Dr. Beller is reviewing a research text for Sage Publications.

- Student Productivity

- Dr. Lynda Cochran Sperazza's book, Programming for Baby Boomers (Human Kinetics), is in final stages of printing and will be on book shelves in a matter of weeks.