

THIS WEEK AT THE CENTER FOR ETHICS*

Friday, September 12, 2008

- Center graduate student, Matthew Hellman, will be presenting at the Idaho recreation and Park Association meeting on September 23. His topic will be "Programming Tips and Tools: Success with the City of Moscow Professional Baseball Clinic."
- Data was analyzed from Georgia Military College and Nolan High School this week and sent. Georgia Military has been a member of the WWC family for about 6 years and Nolan High School in working with the Center to improve their leadership program for sophomores – all students at Nolan are enrolled in a leadership program that uses a custom designed curriculum developed by Dr. Stoll.
- Dr. Stoll submitted her yearly report as Newsletter Editor to the International Association for the Philosophy of Sport (IAPS). The purpose of the organization is to stimulate, encourage, and promote study, research, and writing in the philosophy of sporting (and related) activity. Membership is worldwide and this year's conference is being held in Tokyo. Dr. Stoll has held the office of newsletter editor for over 10 years, as well as being only one of two female past presidents. Newsletters are published online thrice yearly.
- Dr. Stoll submitted her name to be a grant reviewer for the Research Consortium of AAHPERD. Nearly $500,000 in grant funding has been awarded through the AAHPERD Research Grant Program since its inception in 1997..
- Reference letter was written for undergraduate student, Noel Landkammer in her quest to attend physical therapy school
- Dr. Beller is recovering from knee replacement surgery.
- Coming events:
 - Dr. Stoll is quoted in a forthcoming October, 2008, article of ChemMatters about the fairness of new athletic technology which improves performance. <http://www.acs.org/chemmatters>.