

THIS WEEK AT THE CENTER FOR ETHICS*

Friday, April 18, 2008

- Last week, April 6 – 11, many of the staff attended the American Alliance of Health, Physical Education, Recreation, and Dance. Fort Worth, TX. Below find their presentations.
 - NASPE/Sport Philosophy Academy Play Fair - Changing the Way We Teach to Play Thursday, April 10, 4:15 p.m. Speakers: Justin Barnes, Sharon Kay Stoll, Grace Goc Karp University of Idaho and Amukela Gwebu, University of Iowa.
 - NASPE/Coaches Council Coaching Competitive Ethics: Practical Applications for Teaching Character through Sport. Thursday, April 10, 12:30 p.m. Speakers: Pete Van Mullem, Dave Brunner and Sharon Kay Stoll, University of Idaho,
 - Research Consortium Poster Session: Research Strands Across the Alliance, Thursday, April 10, 2008, 3:15 PM - 4:45 PM, Convention Center: Exhibit Hall, Research Consortium Poster Sessions Moral Reasoning and Doping in Division I Sport Patti Davenport¹, Jennifer M. Beller¹ and Sharon Kay Stoll², (1)Washington State University, Pullman, WA, (2)University of Idaho,
 - Research Consortium Free Communication: Extraneous Variables and Training Effects on Performance, Activity, and Wellness, Friday, April 11, 2008, 8:45 AM - 10:00 AM, Convention Center: 202C Athletic Training Educators, Moral Reasoning, and NATA Code of Ethics Jacqueline M. Williams, Slippery Rock University, Sharon Kay Stoll, University of Idaho, and Jennifer M. Beller, Washington State University, published in the March, 2008 Research Quarterly Abstracts.
 - Research Consortium Poster Session: The Study and Assessment of Activity and Performance Across Disciplines, Friday, April 11, 2008, 8:45 AM - 10:15 AM, Convention Center: Exhibit Hall, Research Consortium Poster Sessions Leisure Programming Knowledge About the Boomer Generation Lynda Cochran, SUNY-Brockport, Jennifer M. Beller, Washington State University and Sharon Kay Stoll, University of Idaho, published in the March, 2008 Research Quarterly Abstracts.
- Lynda Cochran, Dr. Stoll, Dr. Beller, and Dr. Grace Goc Karp have a paper accepted for publication in Scholarship, A Journal of Leisure Studies and Recreation Education. Scholarship – considered a Tier I Publication is the official refereed publication of the Society of Park and Recreation Educators, a branch of the National Recreation and Park Association, which aims to disseminate knowledge related to park and recreation courses, curricula, and teaching. It is published annually in August. Articles address a wide range of issues concerning graduate and undergraduate education. The article addresses the use of philosophy to develop programming practices in recreation and leisure education.

- Dr. Stoll gave a keynote for the National convention of the Seventh Day Adventist Health Physical Education, Recreation, and Dance association in Keene, TX on Monday, April 7. The Seventh Day Adventist HPERD group, about 100 members, meets each year at the national AAHPERD convention site for their particular focus sessions. Dr. Stoll spoke on: "From Floyd Landis to Roger Clemens: What to Learn from the Current Ethics' Scandals in Sport.
- Dr. Stoll gave the April lecture for the Scholar Lecture Series at Southwestern Adventist University. Titled: The Digital Generation: Why Moral Education is So Vital was presented to about 40 Southwestern Adventist University faculty and students.
- Character Education Partnership, a Washington, DC based national group supporting character education in K-12 education, is working with Center in supporting character education for schools in Idaho. The Center is a distribution center for information from CEP in which schools can apply for grants in character education from CEP. The link on our Center site is: http://www.educ.uidaho.edu/center_for_ethics
- Received request from Nova University and Weber State to help with studies on character education.
- Coming events:
 - Dr. Stoll presenting at the College of Education, Celebration of Teaching symposium on April 19, TLC 139. Dr. Stoll will be speaking on moral education. The Celebration of Teaching is a series of presentations by UI faculty and National Board Certified Teachers on teaching practice and content.
 - Kim Robertello's, doctoral candidate in COE and TA at Center, will defend her dissertation on April 21, 2008. Kim's research is focused toward philosophic program evaluation of alcohol treatment programs.
 - COE doctoral student and Center TA, David Brunner, has been selected for the keynote of the Northwest Graduate Sport Psychology Conference on April 26.
 - Dr. Stoll will be traveling to Louisiana Tech to present materials on character education and sport servant leadership to the athletic department, April 27 -29. This presentation is a part of the contractual agreement with Winning With Character.