

IN BRIEF: THIS WEEK AT THE CENTER FOR ETHICS*

Friday, July 1, 2011

*The Center for ETHICS* at the University of Idaho offers study, intervention, outreach, consultation, and leadership in developing and advancing the theory, knowledge and understanding of character education including moral and ethical reasoning, moral development, ethical leadership, and ethical application. The Director of the Center is Dr. Sharon Kay Stoll http://www.educ.uidaho.edu/center\_for\_ethics. Newsletter is on hiatus; but weekly or twice monthly updates will be sent out to keep our supporters abreast of what is occurring at the Center. This is a brief synopsis of the week's happening while Newsletter: This Week is on hiatus.*

Book Chapter Proposal submitted.

Van Mullem, P. W., Van Mullen, H., & Stoll, S.K. Wiki Learning: Success and Failure. Van Mullem, Van Mullem, and Stoll (St. Cloud University, Lewis Clark State College, and University of Idaho) did a collaborative Wiki learning project in the spring, 2011. This proposal for a chapter addition is the result of this work. The Call for the proposal is to develop a text that brings together global scholars, researchers, and practitioners to provide models and discussion regarding the use of technology to respond successfully to the challenges previously cited. This book aims at being an interdisciplinary piece of work. Its goal is to convey both the transfer of knowledge between disciplines and to exchange experience on the effective use of technology that leads to the creation of new behaviors and methods. Addressing either K-12 or higher education within each section as well as applications in and out of school, the key areas to be attended to within the sections include:

NASPE reviews done:

Dr. Stoll is a reviewer for the ING grant project through NASPE. The ING grant provides a minimum of 50 $2000 grants to K-8 schools to increase running opportunities for children and offers children a healthy start to life and foster their desire to exercise before obesity ever begins. Dr. Stoll reviewed six applications from K-8 schools across America. NASPE (National Association of Sport and Physical Education) is the largest association in the American Alliance of Health, Physical Education, Recreation, and Dance and serves a wide audience of professions in physical education and sport.

In Residence

Clinton Culp, doctoral candidate in the Center, is in residence in Quantico Virginia at the United States Marine Corps at The Basic School (TBS). The purpose of TBS: Train and educate newly commissioned or appointed officers in the high standards of professional knowledge, esprit-de-corps, and leadership required to prepare them for duty as company grade officers in the operating forces, with particular emphasis on the duties, responsibilities and war-fighting skills required of a rifle platoon commander. Clinton (Ret Maj., USMC) will be there for approximately five months gathering data, and offering intervention advice, for the teaching of character

Data Out:

The Center for ETHICS* analyzed data for Georgia Military Academy Prep School. The Prep School is in its third year using a curriculum developed by the Center for Winning with Character, a non profit organization dedicated to teaching character to athletes and competitive populations.

Presentation Submission:

Beller, J. M. & Stoll, S. K. Yes, you can! Empowering students to research publication. Proposal for presentation at the 2012 AAHPERD National Convention and Exposition, Boston, MA.

Invited Presentation #2 in Korea

Dr. Stoll has been invited to present a 30 minute lecture at the 2011 Korean Sport Psychology Meeting August 27 – 29, 2011. This paper is in addition to her paper that she will give at the 2011 KAHPERD International Sport Science Congress (ISSC) in memory of the Seoul Olympic Games. It will be hosted by Korean Alliance for Health, Physical Education, Recreation and Dance (KAHPERD) on August 25 – 27, 2011 at KeiMyung University in DaeGu, Korea
