

Ethical Theory and Honor in Competition and Sport

RIGHT WRONG

The Center for ETHICS* at the University of Idaho offers study, intervention, outreach, consultation, and leadership in developing and advancing the theory, knowledge and understanding of character education including moral and ethical reasoning, moral development, ethical leadership, and ethical application. The Director of the Center for ETHICS* is Dr. Sharon Kay Stoll.

Presentation Given:

Dr. Brad Dieter has been selected for a week long training opportunity. The Indiana University Division of Nephrology will be hosting its sixth NIH P-30 George M. O'Brien intravital imaging course April 27th thru May 1st, 2015 in Indianapolis, IN. The course will consist of morning state of the art presentations, afternoon workshops with hands on experience of confocal, 2-photon, spinning disc. Optical coherence, and lightsheet microscopes conducting intravital studies, and evening plenary lectures. " Dr. Dieter was Dr. Stoll's 27th completed doctoral student and he is now with Providence, Spokane, as a Post-Doc.

Dr. Dieter also returned from giving a talk with Experimental Biology.

Dieter BP, Cox EJ, Medford HM, Miller L, Marsh SA. O-GlcNAc plays a role in Nrf2 regulation in the myocardium. Experiment Biology. Boston, MA. March, 2015.

Presentation:

Kevin Bryant is in Portland, Oregon, this weekend. He is co-chairing the Beaverton School District lets Move Active Schools Committee, as well as, meeting with Reynolds School District as a consultant to their athletic stadium design and build project. Kevin Bryant is Dr. Stoll's 33rd doctoral student.

Spring 2015 Naval ROTC Awards, University of Idaho

Dr. Stoll will be attending the 2015 Spring Awards for Naval ROTC at Banyans on the Ridge this evening. Marine Sargent Justin Wilkinson, to be graduated as a recreation major on May 16, has invited Dr. Stoll as his most inspirational professor through his degree program at the UofI.