

Ethical Theory and Honor in Competition and Sport

RIGHT WRONG

The Center for ETHICS* at the University of Idaho offers study, intervention, outreach, consultation, and leadership in developing and advancing the theory, knowledge and understanding of character education including moral and ethical reasoning, moral development, ethical leadership, and ethical application. The Director of the Center for ETHICS* is Dr. Sharon Kay Stoll.

Dr. Stoll lectured in the Dr. Bob Frederick Sport Leadership Lecture Series at Lewis-Clark State College in Lewiston, ID on Wednesday, October 28, 2015. Dr. Stoll discussed the topic of Ethical Leadership: Deflategate, Tom Brady, and Gaining an Advantage.

Practical Ethics in Sport Management, a book written by Dr. Stoll, Dr. Angela Lumpkin, and Dr. Jennifer Beller, appeared in the McFarland Newsletter, p. 3, October 2015 as the number twelve bestseller in print.

Dr. Stoll has contributed to the authorship of an article recently accepted for publication in Sports Sciences Review in December 2015. For future references, please refer to the following citation to reference the article.
