

Ethical Theory and Honor in Competition and Sport

RIGHT WRONG

The Center for ETHICS* at the University of Idaho offers study, intervention, outreach, consultation, and leadership in developing and advancing the theory, knowledge and understanding of character education including moral and ethical reasoning, moral development, ethical leadership, and ethical application. The Director of the Center for ETHICS* is Dr. Sharon Kay Stoll.

Dr. Stoll submitted a 2500 extended abstract and PowerPoint presentation to the 14th annual Anti-Doping Symposium for the US Anti-Doping Agency to be held October 2-5 in Washington, D.C. Dr. Stoll is one of three keynote speakers for the education forum. Her extended abstract is attached.

Kevin Bryant, Dr. Stoll's 33rd doctoral student, has submitted his doctoral packet to his doctoral committee for approval to move to Candidacy status.

On Friday, Dr. Stoll attended the 12th Annual Advising Symposium, at the University of Idaho Pittman Center. Fourteen universities attended the conference. The focus of the conference was Persistence, Completion & Beyond. Dr. Stoll advises 15 undergraduate recreation majors.

We also received word that Dr. Tom Anderson, 29th doctoral student, is enjoying his first year at Jacksonville State University in Jacksonville, Alabama teaching "full tilt" as he described it.

Up Coming Events

Dr. Stoll will be attending and speaking at the 2015 Western Society of Kinesiology and Wellness, October 7-9, 2015.

Dr. Slava Popovsky, affiliate member of the Center, and known for his educational experiences physical culture in high level sport as a coach and athlete in the former USSR, will be on campus September 21 and will be lecturing in ISEM 101-31, Sport and Society. Dr. Popovsky is a private consultant in Seattle.