

Ethical Theory and Honor in Competition and Sport

RIGHT WRONG

The Center for ETHICS* at the University of Idaho offers study, intervention, outreach, consultation, and leadership in developing and advancing the theory, knowledge and understanding of character education including moral and ethical reasoning, moral development, ethical leadership, and ethical application. The Director of the Center for ETHICS* is Dr. Sharon Kay Stoll.

Dr. Stoll was interviewed by Kevin Blackstone of the Washington Post concerning a high school football incident in Houston, TX, where two football players tackled the referee.

Dr. Slava Popvosky, affiliate faculty member of the Center, gave two presentations, one in ISEM 101, Sport and Society, and another for Dr. Stoll's doctoral students. Dr. Popvosky is a former coach for the 1980 Women's Olympic Volleyball Team, USSR. His talk was on the difference between training and education systems for coaches and athletes between the former USSR, Russia today, and the USA. In the academic year of 2014-2015, Dr. Popvosky published three collaborative papers. You may view review the papers using the following citations.
